Interview Procedures: On non-game days, Illinois State players are available for interviews after practice. Note that no Illinois State student-athlete will miss a class, practice, conditioning session or team meeting to participate in an interview. Coach Tom Richardson and the team are not available to the media on game-days until the post-game interview session. Illinois State's locker room is always closed. At home games, interviews will be conducted in the Redbird Arena press room. Requests should be directed to Director of Media Relations Todd Kober. Coach Richardson and requested players will answer questions from the media after a brief cooling off period.

ILLINOIS STATE REDBIRDS (4-4) at Chattanooga Mocs (2-5)

The Game: Dec. 15, 2001 • 1:05 p.m. (CST) • McKenzie Arena (11,218) • Chattanooga, Tenn.

9 About The Game: Today's game features two streaking teams. Illinois State is winners of its last two, after losing four straight. Chattanooga has lost five straight games after opening the season with two victories. However, the Mocs are 1-0 at home this season, while the Redbirds are 1-4 away from Redbird Arena, with a 1-2 mark on a neutral floor.

About Chattanooga

- Chattanooga is located in Chattanooga, Tenn., and enrolls 8,319 students. The Mocs are members of the Southern Conference.
- Head coach Henry Dickerson is in his fifth season at Chattanooga. He owns a 58-64 record with the Mocs in five seasons. Dickerson has 22 years coaching experience at the collegiate ranks with assistant stints at Charleston, Marshall and Chattanooga.
- Chattanooga opened the season with wins over Tennessee Wesleyan (89-59) and Liberty (82-57), but has now lost five straight games. After beating Liberty in the first round of the Hawaii Pacific Thanksgiving Classic, the Mocs have fallen to Notre Dame (97-84), Vanderbilt (69-57), at Murray State (72-63), at Kent State (75-56) and at Alabama (74-68).
- The 2000-01 season is the 20th anniversary of the home of the Mocs, McKenzie Arena.
- Nine of the Mocs 16 roster players have transferred in from junior colleges, including five JUCO transfers this season.
- Neil Ashby, a second-year player that transferred from Alabama, leads the Mocs with 14.3 points and 6.7 rebounds per game. Ashby also leads the team with 14 blocks and shoots 59.4 percent from the field.
- Clyde McCully is the only other player with Chattanooga averaging double-digit points. McCully tosses in 11.3 points per game and leads the team with 26 assists. He is shooting 23.1 percent (3-for-13) on treys.
- Three times this season, the Mocs have shot below 40 percent from the floor and 30 percent on treys.
- The Mocs are the second Redbird opponent from the SoCon, with Georgia Southern being the first. UTC was picked to finish third in the South Division behind the Eagles and Charleston.

The Series

Today's game is the first ever meeting between the two schools. Although the Redbirds have never met the Mocs on the hardwood, they have played five other schools from the Volunteer State. Illinois State owns a 4-5 record against schools from Tennessee, but have won the last two meetings with a 77-60 victory over Tennessee-Martin last season and a 82-81 overtime win over Tennessee in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament.

Boo's Scary!!!

Illinois State's Baboucarr Bojang is in his sixth year of organized basketball and is still developing as a player. That's bad news for Redbird opponents considering Bojang has already posted four double-doubles in eight games and two 20-point efforts. In his last outing, Bojang was a perfect 8-for-8 from the floor and grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds and matched his career-best 20 points.

Home Sweet Home

For Illinois State, the biggest cure for a four-game losing skid is a two-game home stand. With wins over Samford and Central Michigan, the Redbirds improved their record to 4-4 on the season and have won 18 of their last 20 games in Redbird Arena. In 14 seasons, the Redbirds are 133-45 in Redbird Arena for a .747 winning percentage.

Mocs Know What Boo Can Do

Even though Baboucarr Bojang is in his first season with the Redbirds, he is no stranger to the Mocs, at least some of them. Chattanooga has four players, Petie Spaulding, Nick Benson, Michael Townsend and Aaron Morgan, that all transferred in from Moberly Junior College and competed against Bojang. Also, assistant coach Kenny Seifert was formerly the head coach at Moberly. While at SMS-West Plains, Bojang averaged 19.3 points and 13.0 rebounds against Moberly last season, including a home game in which he tallied 26 points and hauled in 20 boards.

Jeppson Pledging for the 1,000-Point Club

Of all the organizations on the Illinois State campus, the 1,000-Point Club must rank as one of the most exclusive with only 34 members in the last 104 years. The Redbirds' Shawn Jeppson is closing in on a membership, however. After scoring six points against Central Michigan on Sunday, Jeppson currently owns 850 points for his career and only needs 150 more to become the 35th player in Illinois State history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

For Him, It's Easy Being Greene

Sophomore point guard Vince Greene, who sat out last season meeting NCAA requirements, already has five double-digit scoring efforts this season, including four straight. Greene averaged 4.0 point per game in the Redbirds first four games of the season, but has averaged 12.3 points over the last four. In addition to his scoring, Greene is also accurate. He is shooting 69.2 percent on treys (9-for-13) and 85.7 from the free throw line (24-of-28).

D-Fence, D-Fence

In the first half against Central Michigan, Sunday, the Redbirds caged the Chippewa scorers and held CMU to only 14 first half points. The Chippewas first half total equaled the lowest amount of points ever scored in a half by an Illinois State opponent in Redbird Arena, with Chicago State matching the feat last season. Central Michigan finished the half with 6-for-23 shooting (26.1%) and 1-for-5 on 3-pointers. The Redbirds also held the reigning Mid-American Player of the Year, David Webber, scoreless for the first frame for only the second time of his career.

FT Four-Peat ???

The Redbirds have opened the season shooting 77.5% from the charity stripe and are on a good start to eclipse 70% for a fourth straight season. ISU shot 72.8% from the free throw line last season, 74% in 1999-2000 and 73.5% in 1998-99. The Redbirds have not had a stretch of that length since it bettered 70% for a four-season span from 1982 through 1985.

Jeppson Hits Century Mark

With six minutes left in the game at Georgia Southern, Illinois State guard Shawn Jeppson became the ninth Redbird in school history to drain 100 treys in a career. Jeppson stands in ninth place overall, after hitting one trey against Samford, and needs 10 three-pointers to surpass former Redbird Kyle Cartmill.

Double-Double Debut for Mr. Bojang-les

Baboucarr Bojang played his first game in a Redbird uniform against Weber State and it was worth an encore. Bojang tapped his way to posting his first double-double, as the SMS-West Plains Junior College transfer tossed in 14 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. It was the first time since November 23, 1990, that a Redbird had a double-double performance in an opening game. The late Reggie Wilson poured in 22 points and hauled in 13 rebounds in the season opener at Dayton. It was also Wilson's first game as a Redbird after transferring from Lincoln Community College.

Bryson Out For Season

Tarise Bryson, the nation's top returning scorer, the reigning Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year and Redbirds leading scorer for the last three seasons, fell to the floor on a drive to the basket at the 17:46 mark of the second half in Illinois State's 74-70 opening night victory over Weber State. The fall ended the season for the Redbirds sixth all-time leading scorer, as Bryson dislocated his right wrist and suffered severe ligament damage to his shooting hand. Bryson underwent surgery the day after the game and will face a year of rehabilitation. His wrist will be in a splint for two weeks, a hard cast four weeks and another splint for four weeks. It will take six months to heal.

Picked to Win the League? Chances Are You're Playing Illinois State

Illinois State will play 11 nonconference games this season. Of the Redbirds' 11 non-Missouri Valley Conference foes, seven of the teams were selected in the preseason polls to win their respective leagues. The seven preseason favorites are Weber State (Big Sky), UC-Irvine (Big West), Texas-San Antonio (Southland), Illinois (Big Ten), Georgia Southern (Southern) and Central Michigan and Kent State, which are both favored to win the two divisions of the Mid-American Conference.

Alexander the Great?

According to the roster and the register's office, Gregg Alexander is a true freshman, but on the court he plays like a savvy veteran. In his first season with the Redbirds, Alexander has logged 251 minutes, tops on the team, and coughed up five turnovers. Alexander is averaging .02 turnovers per minute, which is the lowest percentage in the Missouri Valley Conference. He has dished out 22 assists which ranks second on the team and is fourth on the club in scoring with 10.4 points per game. Alexander also leads the team in steals with 12.

THE LAST TIME OUT

Bojang Leads Illinois State Past Central Michigan

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang had 20 points and 13 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season and Illinois State tied a Redbird Arena record by allowing Central Michigan just 14 points in the first half as the Redbirds beat the Chippewas 72-63 in non-conference college basketball Sunday at Redbird Arena.

The stellar defensive effort matched a 14 point half by Chicago State Nov. 25, 2000 at Redbird Arena, but CMU responded with a 49-point second half and chased the 'Birds all the way to the final buzzer.

Shedrick Ford added 15 points and Vince Greene had 11 for the 'Birds, 4-4, who shot a season-best 52.4 percent from the field for the game, including Bojang's 8-for-8 efforts, which ties for No. 5 in Redbird Arena history for field goal perfection. His 20 points matched his career high and the 13 rebounds a career best. The 'Birds had a 35-26 rebounding edge and made 25 of 32 free throws, including 16 of 21 in the second half.

Built Ford Tough

Shedrick Ford is second on the Redbirds in scoring with 11.9 points per game and has scored double-figures for Illinois State in 5-of-8 games. Ford has been the leading scorer in two games and had a season-high 21 points against Hofstra. In the season opener against Weber State, Ford put the team on his back after the injury to Tarise Bryson and finished with 18 points and eight boards.

Alexander Goes Where Few Freshmen Have Gone Before

Since 1990, three true freshman have started their first collegiate games at Illinois State. One of them is current Redbird Gregg Alexander. Alexander drew the starting nod in the opener against Weber State and responded with eight points, one rebound and two assists in 20 minutes of play. Alexander joins P.J. Smith (1999) and Dan Muller (1994).

Been There, Done That

At the Missouri Valley Conference media day, Illinois State was tabbed as the preseason favorite to win the league title by the conference media and sports information directors. The Redbirds received 26 of the possible 30 first-place votes. The last time the 'Birds were chosen preseason favorites was in 1997-98. Illinois State went on to win the conference. In 1996-97, the Redbirds were also favored to win and won the league.

Titanic Turnaround A Memory

It's old news now, but it's probably worth taking at least one more backwards glance at last season's remarkable turnaround.

- Illinois State went from 10-20 to 21-9. That was the fourth-best reversal among Division I programs last season.
- Last season marked the only time in the 94-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference that a team went from 20 losses one season to 20 wins in the next.
- It also marked the most victories (21) and the best winning percentage (.700) Illinois State has ever posted in a year that followed a losing mark (10-20). The previous best for wins after a sub-.500 was 18 (twice) and the top winning percentage was .621 by the 18-11 1992 team.

No Thanks, I'm Just Watching

Trey Guidry, a 6-2 guard, has transferred to Illinois State from North Carolina State, but cannot play for the Redbirds until the 2002-03 season. NCAA rules require that he sit out one season. Guidry was a spot starter for the Wolfpack last season as a freshman and recorded a scoring best of 15 points against Wake Forest.

It Never Gets Boring

Last season's trip to the NIT marked Illinois State's 14th post-season appearance in 31 seasons on the Division I level. The Redbirds have finished over .500 in all but three of their campaigns as a D-I school and own 13 20-win campaigns over the last 26 years.

That's a Winner

With a 21-9 mark last season, one year removed from a 10-20 record, Illinois State has not suffered back-to-back losing seasons since 1965 and 1966 – 35 years ago. The next best such streak in the Valley belongs to SMS, which last had back-to-back losers 20 years ago ('80 & '81). ISU has now finished above .500 in 28 of its 31 campaigns at Division I. The only other two ISU teams that came off losing records (D-1) also did well. The 1988-89 team went 13-17, but its 18-13 successor won the MVC Tournament and went to the NAAs. The 1990-91 team went 5-23, but its 18-11 successor won the regular season league crown.

A Trade-In

It's not quite a trade, but next season when the Redbirds lose the services of Shedrick Ford to graduation they will add Dana Ford. Dana Ford, a 6-foot-4, 185 guard from Egyptian High School in Tamms, Ill., signed a national letter of intent during the early signing period with Illinois State. Last year, Dana Ford averaged 22.5 points and is the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,620 points.

Average Valley Year

Illinois State won an impressive 12 (12-6) Missouri Valley Conference games last season, but that's just slightly above average for the Redbirds. ISU has averaged 10.3 league wins during its 20 years in the Valley, including five years on a 16-game schedule and four on a 14-game slate.

EXHIBITION 1

Bryson, Redbirds Look Sharp in Exhibition Opener

NORMAL, Ill. – Led by 25 points from the nation's returning scoring leader, Tarise Bryson, Illinois State rolled to a 93-69 victory over head coach Tom Richardson's alma mater, St. Xavier, in the Redbirds' exhibition season-opener at Redbird Arena on Thursday.

The reigning Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year and preseason favorite to win the award again this year, Bryson tallied 21 of his game-high 25 points in the decisive first half as he hit on 8-of-10 attempts from the field, including 3-of-4 treys. The all-America candidate unleashed the complete arsenal, hitting from the inside and outside, while even throwing down a fast break dunk. He also dished out a team-high six assists, pulled down two rebounds and notched two steals.

Shedrick Ford tallied 15 points and pulled down six boards, Baboucarr Bojang scored 12 points and grabbed seven rebounds, Casey Reid scored 10 points and grabbed seven rebounds, while Shawn Jeppson added 12 points. Dirk Williams chipped in with six points and five boards, Gregg Alexander added six points and Randy Rice topped off a solid game with five points, four rebounds and a team-high four steals.

Bryson, Ford Lead Redbirds to 98-64 Exhibition Win

NORMAL, Ill. – Led by 23 points from Tarise Bryson and a double-double by Shedrick Ford, the Illinois State men's basketball team dropped the EA Sports Midwest All-Stars, 98-64, Sunday at Redbird Arena.

The 'Birds dominated the first half, leading 50-30 at the break. With the score 22-18 with a little more than eight minutes left in the half, the Redbirds went on an 11-0 run sparked by five points from Bryson, who had 12 points through 14 minutes of action.

In the final minute of the first half, ISU led by 44-28 but then a monstrous dunk by Chad Mazanowski followed by a Gregg Alexander steal led to a Shawn Jeppson layup and a 20-point lead.

The second half started where the first half left off as the 'Birds built on their 20 point cushion on a Ford layup and a Bryson three-pointer giving ISU at 25 point lead.

Four of the five Illinois State starters hit for double-digits led by Bryson's 23. Baboucarr Bojang tossed in 11, freshman Alexander poured in 10 and Ford added 10 points to match 10 rebounds. Jeppson and Dirk Williams provided a spark off the bench, adding 13 and 10, respectively.

GAME 1

Ford Powers Illinois State Past Weber State in Season Opener

NORMAL, Ill. – Forward Shedrick Ford tossed in 18 points and hauled in eight rebounds as Illinois State edged Weber State, 74-70, in the season opener Friday at Redbird Arena.

Pre-season Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Tarise Bryson went down with a dislocated right wrist at the 17:46 mark on a hard foul as he was driving to the basket. Bryson left with eight points, three assists and three steals and will miss the rest of the season.

Down by as many as six in the first half, the Redbirds (1-0) clawed their way back to within one with nine minutes left, after a layup by Ford and a Shawn Jeppson trey. The 'Birds took their first lead of the game at the four minute mark on another Jeppson three-pointer as ISU took a 35-31 lead into the half.

Baboucarr Bojang and Jeppson filled in during the second with the absence of Bryson. Bojang recorded his first double-double in his first game as a Redbird scoring 14 points, 12 in the second half, and pulling down 10 boards. Jeppson tallied 10 of his 14 in the second period and dished out five assists.

Bojang, Illinois State Defense Stuff UC-Irvine

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Junior college transfer Baboucarr Bojang led Illinois State with 13 points and eight rebounds as the Redbirds defeated UC-Irvine 58-52 in the opening round of the University Hoops Classic, Friday.

Illinois State (2-0) opened the game with an 8-0 run and never looked back. UC-Irvine (2-1) got within one point prior to halftime, but could never get any closer.

After leading 26-21 at the half, the Redbirds opened the second frame with a 6-1 spurt to push the lead to 32-22.

Illinois State led by 12, its biggest margin of the game, when Bojang buried a jumper at the 6:24 mark in the game at 49-37.

The Anteaters closed the gap to three points at 52-49 with a minute and a half left, but Illinois State's Shedrick Ford hit a jumper to help seal the win.

Ford finished with nine points, while Shawn Jeppson dumped in 12 and Vince Greene came off the bench to add 11 points.

Big West Player of the Year Jerry Green, who scored 41 points against Pepperdine earlier in the week, was held to 13.

Shooting Woes, Pitt Down Redbirds

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Shedrick Ford led the way for Illinois State with 13 points, but the Redbirds shot 26.7 percent from the floor and suffered their first defeat of the season 65-46 to Pittsburgh in the semifinal of the University Hoops Classic, Saturday.

Illinois State (2-1) struggled from the floor en route to making only 12 field goals and shooting 1-for-11 on 3-pointers. Pittsburgh (5-0) shot 47 percent from the floor and led by as many as 21 points.

The Redbirds' Baboucarr Bojang sank a jumper 57 seconds into the game for the only Illinois State lead at 2-0. The Panthers responded with a 20-4 run.

Illinois State trailed 32-20 at the half and opened the second frame with a 7-2 run to close the gap to 34-27. That was the closest the 'Birds would get, as Pitt went on a 16-2 spurt.

Ford was the only Redbird in double figures. Bojang and Gregg Alexander each tossed in seven points a piece, while Shawn Jeppson and Dirk Williams combined to go 0-for-13 from the floor.

Pitt's Brandin Knight led the way with 13 points, nine boards and five assists. Donatas Zavackas posted a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Illinois State Falls to Hofstra in Overtime

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Gregg Alexander scored a career-high 24 points and three other Redbirds contributed double-digit numbers but it was not enough for the Illinois State men's basketball team to get the victory as the 'Birds fell to Hofstra, 80-82, in overtime Sunday in Moon Township, Pa.

Hofstra (3-1) took home third-place honors with the win over Illinois State. The Redbirds come out of the University Hoops Classic with a 2-2 overall record.

After trailing by 21 points, a quick steal by Jeppson after Rice's bucket setup the fast break for Baboucarr Bojang's dunk, giving Hofstra only a two-point lead, 74-72. With twenty second left, Suarez turned the ball over again, giving Ford the easy layup, tying the score and sending the game into overtime.

The game stayed close throughout OT, with neither team leading by more than two and Illinois State up 80-78 with 1:49 remaining. A layup by Kenny Adeleke in the last minute tied the score at 80 before Hofstra took advantage of a missed layup and turnover by Ford and Alexander fouled Osei Miller, who got the steal, to take him to the line. Miller made both his free throws and secured the victory, 82-80.

Hot Shooting Sinks 'Birds

STATESBORO, Ga. – Baboucarr Bojang got his third double-double of the season, but it wasn't enough as Illinois State fell to Georgia Southern 87-76, in nonconference action Thursday.

The Eagles (3-2) lit up the Redbirds (2-3) by shooting 59.6 percent from the floor, including 67 percent in the first half.

Illinois State lead 33-30 with 5:08 left in the first half, but the Eagles went on an 18-7 run to end the frame that included six points by Julius Jenkins. In the second half, the Redbirds got to within two points at 56-54 and the Eagles responded again with a 10-2 spurt that Kashien Latham chipped in half the points.

The 'Birds closed the gap to four points at 8:43 left in the contest, but a 7-0 Eagle run padded the lead. Illinois State wasn't able to get any closer than seven points.

Bojang finished with 14 points and 10 rebounds, while Jeppson led the team with 19 points. Vince Greene came off the bench to toss in 12 and Shedrick Ford added 11.

Jenkins led all scorers with 26 points and Latham poured in 20 points and grabbed 11 rebounds.

UT-San Antonio Pulls Away From Illinois State

SAN ANTONIO – The UT-San Antonio duo of Devin Brown and McEverett Powers combined for 43 points to lead Texas-San Antonio past Illinois State, 88-82, Saturday afternoon in non-conference basketball action.

Baboucarr Bojang led the Redbirds with 20 points while Gregg Alexander had 18. Shawn Jeppson also contributed with 15 and Vince Greene had 12. This is the fourth straight loss for Illinois State (2-4) and fifth straight road game for the 'Birds. UTSA is now 3-1 on the year.

Illinois State led 13-10 in the first before UTSA went on a 17-0 run mid-way through and held the Redbirds without a field goal for seven minutes. A three-point basket by Alexander broke Illinois State's offensive freeze and created a scoring run for the 'Birds, who closed the UTSA lead to six at the 1:19 mark, 37-31.

A foul on Casey Reid put Brown at the free throw line before Texas-San Antonio scored five straight points to be up 42-32 at halftime.

Illinois State rebounded from the first half to eventually take a one-point lead, 61-60, with 10:12 to play in the game. But UTSA went on another run, 11-0, that had the Redbirds trailing by 10 with two minutes to play.

Second-Half Defense Spurs Redbirds Past Samford

NORMAL, III. – Vince Greene's career-high 14 points led three Redbirds in double figures scoring as Illinois State stopped Samford 65-54 Saturday at Redbird Arena.

Phillip Ramelli made all seven of his field goal attempts to lead Samford with 14 points.

Baboucarr Bojang added 13 points and Dirk Williams added 10 for the Redbirds, 3-4, who had lost four straight games, all on the road. Samford shot 55.6 percent from the field to Illinois State's 46.8 percent, but the Redbirds forced 25 Bulldog turnovers, 17 in the second half. ISU had an 18-0 edge in points off turnovers in the second half, when they out-pointed Samford 42-27.

ISU held-off several Samford challenges in the next six minutes thanks to some stingy defense. The Bulldogs had more turnovers (14) than shots (13) in the first 14 minutes of the second half.

Bojang Leads Illinois State Past Central Michigan

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang had 20 points and 13 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season and Illinois State tied a Redbird Arena record by allowing Central Michigan just 14 points in the first half as the Redbirds beat the Chippewas 72-63 in non-conference college basketball Sunday at Redbird Arena.

The stellar defensive effort matched a 14 point half by Chicago State Nov. 25, 2000 at Redbird Arena, but CMU responded with a 49-point second half and chased the 'Birds all the way to the final buzzer.

Shedrick Ford added 15 points and Vince Greene had 11 for the 'Birds, 4-4, who shot a season-best 52.4 percent from the field for the game, including Bojang's 8-for-8 efforts, which ties for No. 5 in Redbird Arena history for field goal perfection. His 20 points matched his career high and the 13 rebounds a career best. The 'Birds had a 35-26 rebounding edge and made 25 of 32 free throws, including 16 of 21 in the second half.
