Interview Procedures: On non-game days, Illinois State players are available for interviews after practice. Note that no Illinois State student-athlete will miss a class, practice, conditioning session or team meeting to participate in an interview. Coach Tom Richardson and the team are not available to the media on game-days until the post-game interview session. Illinois State's locker room is always closed. At home games, interviews will be conducted in the Redbird Arena press room. Requests should be directed to Director of Media Relations Todd Kober. Coach Richardson and requested players will answer questions from the media after a brief cooling off period.

ILLINOIS STATE REDBIRDS (11-12, 7-5) at Indiana State Sycamores (4-17, 2-10)

The Game: Feb. 9, 2002 • 3:05 p.m. (CST) • Hulman Center (10,200) • Terre Haute, Ind.

24

About The Game: Illinois State enters today's game winners in five of its last six games, while Indiana State has dropped five of its last six. The Redbirds won the first regular season meeting between these two teams, 68-56, in Normal on Jan. 12. An Illinois State win today, would mark the first sweep of the Sycamores by the 'Birds since 1998.

About Indiana State

- Indiana State is located in Terre Haute, Ind., and enrolls 11,484 students. The Sycamores are members of the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Head coach Royce Waltman is in his fifth season at Indiana State. He owns a 79-62 record with the Sycamores after serving as the head coach at Indianapolis for five seasons and DePauw for five. Prior to coaching at DePauw, Waltman worked as an assistant at Indiana.
- Indiana State has posted a 1-8 (including the loss at Redbird Arena) mark since these teams last met.
- Senior Kelyn Block has returned to the Sycamore line-up after missing seven games after undergoing surgery on his right knee. He leads the team with 12.6 points per game. Since his return, Block has played in three games and is averaging 15.7 points per contest.
- Block is the only Indiana State player averaging double-digit scoring. Djibril Kante is posting 9.5 points per game and is the team's leading rebounder with 8.3 boards per contest. He also leads the club with 25 blocked shots. Kante gets to the foul line a lot with 123 attempts, but he's only converted 70 shots for a 56.9 percentage.
- Kante and Block combine for nearly half of the entire team's free throw attempts (189-of-402).
- Since his return, Block has gotten to the charity stripe 27 times, or nine per game.
- The Sycamores have had 33% of their shots come from behind the arc, led by Matt Broerman. He has 89 three-point attempts on the season and only four two-point tries.
- Block is the most accurate 3-point shooter, seeing a success rate of 40.5%.
- Nine players are seeing 11 or more minutes per game.

The Series

Tonight's game is the 85th meeting between the two schools, which is the longest rivalry for Illinois State with a program outside the state of Illinois. The Redbirds lead the series 46-38, but Indiana State has won six of the last seven meetings. Illinois State won the matchup earlier this year at Redbird Arena, 68-56, that ended the Sycamore six-game winning streak in the series. In Terre Haute, Indiana State leads the series 27-16, with the Redbirds posting their last win on Feb. 7, 1998.

Cleaning Up I-74

Illinois State pulled out the brooms Tuesday night, sweeping the regular season series against I-74 rival Bradley. The series sweep was the first for the Redbirds since 1998. It is only the seventh time the 'Birds have swept in the 92-game history.

60 Limit Strictly Enforced

In the last eight games, the 'Birds have posted a 6-2 mark thanks to enforcing a 60-point limit on their opponents. In the eight contests, the Redbirds have allowed their opponent to score more than 60 points just twice – both losses – a 63-56 loss at Creighton and a 68-63 loss at Southwest Missouri State. Otherwise Illinois State has six wins by holding Indiana State (56), SMS (60), Bradley (55 & 51), Drake (54) and UNI (55) to 60 points or less.

Movin' On Up

George and Weezy's dry cleaning business can't even compare to the Redbird's improvement in field goal defense. For the first half of the season, the 'Birds ranked last in the league allowing a near 50 percent success rate on their opponents shots. However in the last six games, Illinois State foes are shooting a lowly 40.2 percent from the field, while the Redbirds have posted a 5-1 record. Currently the 'Birds rank ninth in the league at 47%, but is chasing the pack.

Williams Breaks Foot; Will Miss Six to Eight Weeks

Sophomore forward Dirk Williams will likely miss the remainder of the season after breaking the first cuneiform bone in his left foot during a Redbird practice. Williams wasn't sure how the injury occurred, but he will be in a hard cast and crutches. The Pekin native played in all 21 games with eight starts, including four straight – all Redbird wins. Williams was averaging 4.3 points, 3.0 rebounds and 15.2 minutes per game.

Jeppson Joins 1,000-Point Club

Of all the organizations on the Illinois State campus, the 1,000-Point Club must rank as one of the most exclusive with only 35 members in the last 104 years. The Redbirds' newest member is Shawn Jeppson after scoring 10 points at Southwest Missouri State. Jeppson's trey, two and a half minutes into the game sealed his membership. He now has 1,020 points.

Redbird Turnovers – SOLD OUT

It's a good thing the Redbirds weren't operating a bakery Tuesday night against Bradley, because they weren't giving out too many turnovers. The 'Birds only coughed up five turnovers during the 40-minute span which is the lowest total by an Illinois State team since Feb. 28, 1987 (5 vs. Ind. St.).

The Defensive Difference

On Illinois State box scores, if the score happens to be covered or smeared, to figure out if the Redbirds won the game or not is as easy as looking at the opponent's field goal percentage. In the 'Birds 11 victories, Illinois State foes are shooting 43.5% from the floor. In the 12 losses, teams are lighting up the scoreboard at 49.8%. The same can be said for 3-pointers.. On treys, Illinois State allows 32.4% in wins and 35.3% in losses. In victories the 'Birds are shooting 39.3% from three, while only shooting 33.2% in defeat.

Bounty Hunter Defense

Not only have the 'Birds held six of their last eight opponents to 60 points or less, they are also taking out the opponent's hired gun. The 'Birds have held the league's leading scorer, UNI's Robbie Sieverding, to 11 points, eight below his average; Drake's Luke McDonald, averaging 17.3 ppg, to 11 points; Bradley's Phillip Gilbert (13.9 ppg) was held to five tallies in Peoria and Wichita State's Randy Burns (14.9 ppg) tossed in five points.

A Larger Portion of Rice

In the last 10 games, if the Redbirds have looked a little different it might be because of a change in their diet. Lately, the offensive appetite of the 'Birds has been fueled by Rice – Randy Rice that is. The senior is averaging 8.3 points per game during that span on 28-for-61 shooting. Not only has Rice been scoring, he also has 19 steals, 37 rebounds and 46 assists with only 18 turnovers.

The New Boo Review

Baboucarr Bojang appears to be the front runner for the league's newcomer of the year and here's why. Bojang posted his seventh double-double of the season in the 'Birds win over Northern Iowa. Bojang tossed in 23 points, his fourth 20-point plus effort of the year, and hauled in a career-best 15 boards along with four blocks. Bojang has been a consistent offensive threat all season, scoring double figures in 20-of-23 games.

Driven By Ford Lately

The Redbirds have won five of their last six thanks in a large part to Shedrick Ford. But Ford hasn't been pacing the 'Birds in his usual role. In all six games, Ford has played with emotion off the bench and is averaging 11.7 points per contest during the streak. In addition to scoring, Ford is getting to the free throw line. In six games, Ford is 28-for-33 from the charity stripe.

FT Four-Peat ???

The Redbirds have opened the season shooting 76.2% from the charity stripe and are in good shape to eclipse 70% for a fourth straight season. ISU shot 72.8% from the free throw line last season, 74% in 1999-2000 and 73.5% in 1998-99. The Redbirds have not had a stretch of that length since it bettered 70% for a four-season span from 1982 through 1985.

Ah, There are the Comeback Wins

Through 17 games, the Redbirds had one victory (vs. Samford) in games in which they trailed at halftime. But second-half rallies against Southwest Missouri State and Bradley boosted that win total to three. Last season, the 'Birds had 11 come-from-behind wins on their 21-9 campaign.

Sensational From the Stripe

Not only will the Redbirds 76.2% shooting from the free throw be four straight seasons at 70% or better, it currently ranks as the second-best percentage by an Illinois State team in school history. Only the 1983-84 team has shot better from the line at 77.4%.

Sending Out an S.O.S.

After being picked to win the conference and sitting with a 7-11 overall record, the Redbirds might be feeling like they're stranded on a deserted island. However, for these cast aways the cause, rather than a solution, could be found in an S.O.S. – Strength of Schedule. Illinois State's schedule ranks as the No. 88 toughest slate in the nation by Saragin Rankings and No. 79 by College RPI.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET

Bojang Leads Redbirds to 68-56 Win Over Indiana State

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang scored 13 of his team-high 15 points in the first half as Illinois State defeated Indiana State, 68-56, Saturday in Missouri Valley Conference action at Redbird Arena.

Illinois State, 6-10 (2-3 MVC), had four players score in double figures. Shedrick Ford and Shawn Jeppson had 11 points apiece, while Randy Rice chipped in 10 points for the 'Birds. Bojang also posted his fifth double-double of the season with a game-high 11 rebounds. Andy Strandmark also came off the bench to chip in eight points and seven boards.

The Sycamores were led in scoring by Terence Avery with 22 points. Marcus Howard was the only other player for Indiana State to score in double digits with 11 points. Djibril Kante led the Sycamores on the boards with seven rebounds.

Indiana State, 3-11 (1-4 MVC) had the lead for the majority of the first half until Jeppson made a lay-up with 1:50 remaining that gave the Redbirds a 27-26 advantage. A jumper by Howard gave the Sycamores the lead again 28-27, but Bojang converted on a three-point play and scored on a tip-in at the buzzer to give the 'Birds a 33-30 lead heading into halftime.

Freshman Trey-ning

True freshman Gregg Alexander is adjusting the next level nicely. In fact through 23 games, Alexander has 44 made 3-pointers, for an average of 1.9 per game. At this pace, Alexander will finish the regular season with 58 treys. The Redbird freshman record for made 3-pointers is 50, set by Dan Muller during the 1994-95 season.

Non-Conference Slate as Tough as Advertised

Heading into the season head coach Tom Richardson knew that Illinois State's 11-game non-conference schedule was going to be challenging. As if the Redbirds 4-7 record wasn't enough proof, Illinois State's non-conference opponents have posted a 148-88 (.627) mark this season. In addition to the overall winning percentage, Redbird non-conference foes have posted wins over Arkansas, Ball St., Boston College, Gonzaga, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio St., Pepperdine, St. Bonaventure, St. John's and Utah St. (twice), which College RPI all rank in its top 50.

Picked to Win the League? Chances Are You Played Illinois State

ISU played 11 non-conference games this season. Of the Redbirds' 11 non-Missouri Valley Conference foes, seven of the teams were selected in the preseason polls to win their respective leagues. The seven preseason favorites are Weber State (Big Sky), UC-Irvine (Big West), UT-San Antonio (Southland), Illinois (Big Ten), Georgia Southern (Southern) and Central Michigan and Kent State, which are both favored to win the two divisions of the Mid-American Conference.

Bryson Out For Season

Tarise Bryson, the nation's top returning scorer, the reigning Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year and Redbirds leading scorer for the last three seasons, fell to the floor on a drive to the basket at the 17:46 mark of the second half in Illinois State's 74-70 opening night victory over Weber State. Bryson dislocated his right wrist and suffered severe ligament damage to his shooting hand. Bryson underwent surgery the day after the game and will have a cast on for two more weeks, followed by four months of rehabilitation before resuming any basketball activity.

No Thanks, I'm Just Watching

Trey Guidry, a 6-2 guard, has transferred to Illinois State from North Carolina State, but cannot play for the Redbirds until the 2002-03 season. NCAA rules require that he sit out one season. Guidry was a spot starter for the Wolfpack last season as a freshman and recorded a scoring best of 15 points against Wake Forest.

Double-Double Debut for Mr. Bojang-Ies

Baboucarr Bojang played his first game in a Redbird uniform against Weber State and it was worth an encore. Bojang tapped his way to posting his first double-double, as the SMS-West Plains Junior College transfer tossed in 14 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. It was the first time since November 23, 1990, that a Redbird had a double-double performance in an opening game. The late Reggie Wilson poured in 22 points and hauled in 13 rebounds in the season opener at Dayton. It was also Wilson's first game as a Redbird after transferring from Lincoln Community College.

Jeppson Hits Century Mark

With six minutes left in the game at Georgia Southern, Illinois State guard Shawn Jeppson became the ninth Redbird in school history to drain 100 treys in a career. After hitting a trey vs. Bradley, Jeppson stands in sixth place overall with 129 three-pointers and needs 21 more to move ahead of former Redbird Richard Thomas.

Alexander Goes Where Few Freshmen Have Gone Before

Since 1990, three true freshman have started their first collegiate games at Illinois State. One of them is current Redbird Gregg Alexander. Alexander drew the starting nod in the opener against Weber State and responded with eight points, one rebound and two assists in 20 minutes of play. Alexander joins P.J. Smith (1999) and Dan Muller (1994).

A Trade-In???

It's not quite a trade, but next season when the Redbirds lose the services of Shedrick Ford to graduation they will add Dana Ford. Dana Ford, a 6-foot-4, 185 guard from Egyptian High School in Tamms, Ill., signed a national letter of intent during the early signing period with Illinois State. Last year, Dana Ford averaged 22.5 points and is the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,620 points.

EXHIBITION 1

Bryson, Redbirds Look Sharp in Exhibition Opener

NORMAL, Ill. – Led by 25 points from the nation's returning scoring leader, Tarise Bryson, Illinois State rolled to a 93-69 victory over head coach Tom Richardson's alma mater, St. Xavier, in the Redbirds' exhibition season-opener at Redbird Arena on Thursday.

The reigning Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year and preseason favorite to win the award again this year, Bryson tallied 21 of his game-high 25 points in the decisive first half as he hit on 8-of-10 attempts from the field, including 3-of-4 treys. The all-America candidate unleashed the complete arsenal, hitting from the inside and outside, while even throwing down a fast break dunk. He also dished out a team-high six assists, pulled down two rebounds and notched two steals.

Shedrick Ford tallied 15 points and pulled down six boards, Baboucarr Bojang scored 12 points and grabbed seven rebounds, Casey Reid scored 10 points and grabbed seven rebounds, while Shawn Jeppson added 12 points. Dirk Williams chipped in with six points and five boards, Gregg Alexander added six points and Randy Rice topped off a solid game with five points, four rebounds and a team-high four steals.

Bryson, Ford Lead Redbirds to 98-64 Exhibition Win

NORMAL, Ill. – Led by 23 points from Tarise Bryson and a double-double by Shedrick Ford, the Illinois State men's basketball team dropped the EA Sports Midwest All-Stars, 98-64, Sunday at Redbird Arena.

The 'Birds dominated the first half, leading 50-30 at the break. With the score 22-18 with a little more than eight minutes left in the half, the Redbirds went on an 11-0 run sparked by five points from Bryson, who had 12 points through 14 minutes of action.

In the final minute of the first half, ISU led by 44-28 but then a monstrous dunk by Chad Mazanowski followed by a Gregg Alexander steal led to a Shawn Jeppson layup and a 20-point lead.

The second half started where the first half left off as the 'Birds built on their 20 point cushion on a Ford layup and a Bryson three-pointer giving ISU at 25 point lead.

Four of the five Illinois State starters hit for double-digits led by Bryson's 23. Baboucarr Bojang tossed in 11, freshman Alexander poured in 10 and Ford added 10 points to match 10 rebounds. Jeppson and Dirk Williams provided a spark off the bench, adding 13 and 10, respectively.

Ford Powers Illinois State Past Weber State in Season Opener

NORMAL, Ill. – Forward Shedrick Ford tossed in 18 points and hauled in eight rebounds as Illinois State edged Weber State, 74-70, in the season opener Friday at Redbird Arena.

Pre-season Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Tarise Bryson went down with a dislocated right wrist at the 17:46 mark on a hard foul as he was driving to the basket. Bryson left with eight points, three assists and three steals and will miss the rest of the season.

Down by as many as six in the first half, the Redbirds (1-0) clawed their way back to within one with nine minutes left, after a layup by Ford and a Shawn Jeppson trey. The 'Birds took their first lead of the game at the four minute mark on another Jeppson three-pointer as ISU took a 35-31 lead into the half.

Baboucarr Bojang and Jeppson filled in during the second with the absence of Bryson. Bojang recorded his first double-double in his first game as a Redbird scoring 14 points, 12 in the second half, and pulling down 10 boards. Jeppson tallied 10 of his 14 in the second period and dished out five assists.

Bojang, Illinois State Defense Stuff UC-Irvine

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Junior college transfer Baboucarr Bojang led Illinois State with 13 points and eight rebounds as the Redbirds defeated UC-Irvine 58-52 in the opening round of the University Hoops Classic, Friday.

Illinois State (2-0) opened the game with an 8-0 run and never looked back. UC-Irvine (2-1) got within one point prior to halftime, but could never get any closer.

After leading 26-21 at the half, the Redbirds opened the second frame with a 6-1 spurt to push the lead to 32-22.

Illinois State led by 12, its biggest margin of the game, when Bojang buried a jumper at the 6:24 mark in the game at 49-37.

The Anteaters closed the gap to three points at 52-49 with a minute and a half left, but Illinois State's Shedrick Ford hit a jumper to help seal the win.

Ford finished with nine points, while Shawn Jeppson dumped in 12 and Vince Greene came off the bench to add 11 points.

Big West Player of the Year Jerry Green, who scored 41 points against Pepperdine earlier in the week, was held to 13.

Shooting Woes, Pitt Down Redbirds

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Shedrick Ford led the way for Illinois State with 13 points, but the Redbirds shot 26.7 percent from the floor and suffered their first defeat of the season 65-46 to Pittsburgh in the semifinal of the University Hoops Classic, Saturday.

Illinois State (2-1) struggled from the floor en route to making only 12 field goals and shooting 1-for-11 on 3-pointers. Pittsburgh (5-0) shot 47 percent from the floor and led by as many as 21 points.

The Redbirds' Baboucarr Bojang sank a jumper 57 seconds into the game for the only Illinois State lead at 2-0. The Panthers responded with a 20-4 run.

Illinois State trailed 32-20 at the half and opened the second frame with a 7-2 run to close the gap to 34-27. That was the closest the 'Birds would get, as Pitt went on a 16-2 spurt.

Ford was the only Redbird in double figures. Bojang and Gregg Alexander each tossed in seven points a piece, while Shawn Jeppson and Dirk Williams combined to go 0-for-13 from the floor.

Pitt's Brandin Knight led the way with 13 points, nine boards and five assists. Donatas Zavackas posted a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Illinois State Falls to Hofstra in Overtime

MOON TOWNSHIP, Pa. – Gregg Alexander scored a career-high 24 points and three other Redbirds contributed double-digit numbers but it was not enough for the Illinois State men's basketball team to get the victory as the 'Birds fell to Hofstra, 80-82, in overtime Sunday in Moon Township, Pa.

Hofstra (3-1) took home third-place honors with the win over Illinois State. The Redbirds come out of the University Hoops Classic with a 2-2 overall record.

After trailing by 21 points, a quick steal by Jeppson after Rice's bucket setup the fast break for Baboucarr Bojang's dunk, giving Hofstra only a two-point lead, 74-72. With twenty second left, Suarez turned the ball over again, giving Ford the easy layup, tying the score and sending the game into overtime.

The game stayed close throughout OT, with neither team leading by more than two and Illinois State up 80-78 with 1:49 remaining. A layup by Kenny Adeleke in the last minute tied the score at 80 before Hofstra took advantage of a missed layup and turnover by Ford and Alexander fouled Osei Miller, who got the steal, to take him to the line. Miller made both his free throws and secured the victory, 82-80.

Hot Shooting Sinks 'Birds

STATESBORO, Ga. – Baboucarr Bojang got his third double-double of the season, but it wasn't enough as Illinois State fell to Georgia Southern 87-76, in nonconference action Thursday.

The Eagles (3-2) lit up the Redbirds (2-3) by shooting 59.6 percent from the floor, including 67 percent in the first half.

Illinois State lead 33-30 with 5:08 left in the first half, but the Eagles went on an 18-7 run to end the frame that included six points by Julius Jenkins. In the second half, the Redbirds got to within two points at 56-54 and the Eagles responded again with a 10-2 spurt that Kashien Latham chipped in half the points.

The 'Birds closed the gap to four points at 8:43 left in the contest, but a 7-0 Eagle run padded the lead. Illinois State wasn't able to get any closer than seven points.

Bojang finished with 14 points and 10 rebounds, while Jeppson led the team with 19 points. Vince Greene came off the bench to toss in 12 and Shedrick Ford added 11.

Jenkins led all scorers with 26 points and Latham poured in 20 points and grabbed 11 rebounds.

UT-San Antonio Pulls Away From Illinois State

SAN ANTONIO – The UT-San Antonio duo of Devin Brown and McEverett Powers combined for 43 points to lead Texas-San Antonio past Illinois State, 88-82, Saturday afternoon in non-conference basketball action.

Baboucarr Bojang led the Redbirds with 20 points while Gregg Alexander had 18. Shawn Jeppson also contributed with 15 and Vince Greene had 12. This is the fourth straight loss for Illinois State (2-4) and fifth straight road game for the 'Birds. UTSA is now 3-1 on the year.

Illinois State led 13-10 in the first before UTSA went on a 17-0 run mid-way through and held the Redbirds without a field goal for seven minutes. A three-point basket by Alexander broke Illinois State's offensive freeze and created a scoring run for the 'Birds, who closed the UTSA lead to six at the 1:19 mark, 37-31.

A foul on Casey Reid put Brown at the free throw line before Texas-San Antonio scored five straight points to be up 42-32 at halftime.

Illinois State rebounded from the first half to eventually take a one-point lead, 61-60, with 10:12 to play in the game. But UTSA went on another run, 11-0, that had the Redbirds trailing by 10 with two minutes to play.

Second-Half Defense Spurs Redbirds Past Samford

NORMAL, III. – Vince Greene's career-high 14 points led three Redbirds in double figures scoring as Illinois State stopped Samford 65-54 Saturday at Redbird Arena.

Phillip Ramelli made all seven of his field goal attempts to lead Samford with 14 points.

Baboucarr Bojang added 13 points and Dirk Williams added 10 for the Redbirds, 3-4, who had lost four straight games, all on the road. Samford shot 55.6 percent from the field to Illinois State's 46.8 percent, but the Redbirds forced 25 Bulldog turnovers, 17 in the second half. ISU had an 18-0 edge in points off turnovers in the second half, when they out-pointed Samford 42-27.

ISU held-off several Samford challenges in the next six minutes thanks to some stingy defense. The Bulldogs had more turnovers (14) than shots (13) in the first 14 minutes of the second half.

Bojang Leads Illinois State Past Central Michigan

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang had 20 points and 13 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season and Illinois State tied a Redbird Arena record by allowing Central Michigan just 14 points in the first half as the Redbirds beat the Chippewas 72-63 in non-conference college basketball Sunday at Redbird Arena.

The stellar defensive effort matched a 14 point half by Chicago State Nov. 25, 2000 at Redbird Arena, but CMU responded with a 49-point second half and chased the 'Birds all the way to the final buzzer.

Shedrick Ford added 15 points and Vince Greene had 11 for the 'Birds, 4-4, who shot a season-best 52.4 percent from the field for the game, including Bojang's 8-for-8 efforts, which ties for No. 5 in Redbird Arena history for field goal perfection. His 20 points matched his career high and the 13 rebounds a career best. The 'Birds had a 35-26 rebounding edge and made 25 of 32 free throws, including 16 of 21 in the second half.

Chattanooga Defeats Illinois State, 70-59

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. – Baboucarr Bojang scored a career-high 26 points to lead all scorers, but the rest of the Redbird offense struggled as Chattanooga defeated Illinois State 70-59 in non-conference men's basketball action, Saturday, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

A 16-6 run by the Mocs, 3-5, late in the first half and a 10-4 run to start the second half proved to be too much for the 'Birds, 4-5, who managed only 26 points in the first half on 12 of 30 shooting.

Bojang scored 16 of his 26 points in the first half, shooting seven for eight from the field and hitting two free throws. He also led Illinois State in rebounding with eight. Shawn Jeppson was the only other Redbird to finish in double figures in scoring with 10 points. Shedrick Ford contributed nine points and five rebounds.

Chattanooga led by 10 at the half, 36-26, with Toot Young chipping in half of the Moc's points with 18.

Young finished the game as Chattanooga's leading scorer with 22 points. The Moc's had three other players in double figures with 10 points apiece.

Illini Downs Illinois State, 87-73

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) – It was a case of too much paint for Illinois State's basketball team Tuesday night at the Assembly Hall. No. 7-ranked Illinois scored 36 of its 50 second-half points in the paint to cover up ISU, 87-73, before a sellout crowd of 16,500 people.

The Illini (9-2) led by five at halftime but went on a 17-6 run in which Frank Williams scored eight straight points and 11 in total to help Illinois build a 20-point lead. He finished with 29 points - including 4-of-8 from 3-point range - one off his career high.

Leading 37-32 at halftime, the Illini extended their lead over Illinois State (4-5) to 50-38 in the opening minutes of the second half with Williams on the bench because of a stomach ailment. Reserve Damir Krupalija scored nine of Illinois' 13 points in the surge and finished with 14 points on 6-for-7 shooting.

Illinois made 13 of its first 17 field goal attempts after halftime and shot 60 percent in the half, with most of those points coming on shots near the basket. The Illini shot 53 percent for the game.

Baboucarr Bojang had 15 points for the Redbirds.

The schools, located approximately 50 miles apart, played for just the seventh time, the first since 1982.

The Illini won the last meeting 67-60, and has lost to the Redbirds once, in 1906.

Illinois State Falls to Kent State, 61-48

NORMAL, Ill. – Andrew Mitchell scored 12 of his game-high 17 points in the second half as Kent State defeated Illinois State 61-48 at Redbird Arena. Shawn Jeppson led the 'Birds in scoring with 12 points.

The Redbirds, 4-7, managed only 18 points in the first half, the total tied the record for least points in a half for Illinois State at Redbird Arena. The other 18-point half performance occurred on January 23, 1993 against Bradley, when Illinois State was outscored 24-18 in the first frame. The 'Birds were unable to generate any points in the final 6:38 of the first half.

Kent State, 5-4, had two other players find double figures with Trevor Huffman scoring 13 and Demetric Shaw chipping in 10. The Golden Flashes were led on the boards by Antonio Gates with 11.

Baboucarr Bojang was the only other Redbird to reach double figures with 11 points. Andy Strandmark had another great performance off the bench for Illinois State leading the team in rebounding with seven.

Redbirds Fall Short to Creighton

NORMAL, Ill. – After battling a hot-shooting Creighton team for 28 minutes, Illinois State went cold and fell victim to a couple of late spurts and Kyle Korver's 24 points as the Jays won for just the second time in 18 tries in Normal, 76-62.

Korver led the Jays, 7-4 overall, 2-0 in the Missouri Valley, by hitting his first seven field goals, three from three-point range, and a pair of free throws. He finished 8-9 overall and had support from Terrell Taylor's 15 points and 14 by Brody Daren, who made 6 of 7 field goals. Joe Dabbert had 10 points and a game-high 10 rebounds as Creighton shot 63 percent from the field, including 4-8 from three-point range to overcome 20 turnovers.

The Redbirds, 4-8, 0-1 in the Valley, had four players in double figures led by Baboucarr Bojang with 13. Shedrick Ford had 12, Shawn Jeppson 11 and Gregg Alexander had 10. The lead changed 14 times and the game was tied nine times through the first 28 minutes. ISU shot 41 percent—just 9 of 25 in the second half and just one field goal in 11 tries during the final 12 minutes of the game.

Southern Illinois Cruises Past Illinois State

CARBONDALE, Ill. – Illinois State committed 24 turnovers and continued to have problems generating points throughout the game as the Southern Illinois Salukis cruised to a 79-58 conference victory over the Redbirds in Carbondale, Ill. The Salukis had four players reach double figures in scoring in the game.

SIU, 12-2 (2-0 MVC), started to pull away midway through the first half with a 11-2 run. With the score 43-31 at the half, the Salukis added some more cushion to their lead with a 13-3 run to open the second half. SIU took their largest lead of the game, 72-40, with a little over eight minutes remaining in the game.

Shedrick Ford led Illinois State, 4-9 (0-2 MVC), with 16 points shooting 7 for 14 from the field. Baboucarr Bojang was the only other Redbird to reach double figures with 13 points. Bojang also led the 'Birds on the boards with nine rebounds.

SIU was led in scoring by junior Jermaine Dearman with 16 points, while freshman guard Stetson Hairston put together the best performance of his young collegiate career with 15 points and 11 rebounds. The Salukis tallied 20 offensive boards in the game, which helped create plenty of opportunities for SIU to score.

Illinois State Falls at Drake, 83-73

DES MOINES, Iowa – Luke McDonald and Andry Sola each had 17 points as Drake put on an offensive display to defeat the Redbirds 83-73 at the Drake Knapp Center in Des Moines, Iowa. The Bulldogs shot a season-high 57 percent from the field in the game, which was charged by 64 percent shooting in the second half.

Drake, 7-7 overall (2-2 MVC), had five players reach double figures in scoring in the game. J.J. Sola had 15 points, while Lonnie Randolph and Greg Danielson chipped in 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Illinois State, 5-10 overall (1-3 MVC), was led by Gregg Alexander with 17 points, including a 5-for-9 performance from behind the arc. Dirk Williams came off the bench to put up 13 points. Baboucarr Bojang contributed 12 points and led the 'Birds on the boards with seven rebounds.

With Drake ahead 36-32 at the half, Alexander and Bojang were able to cut the lead to one point early, but a 9-0 run by the Bulldogs with just over 15 minutes remaining kept the 'Birds at bay for the remainder of the game. Illinois State was unable to cut the lead to less than seven points following the 9-0 Bulldog run.

Bojang Leads Redbirds to 68-56 Win Over Indiana State

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang scored 13 of his team-high 15 points in the first half as Illinois State defeated Indiana State, 68-56, Saturday in Missouri Valley Conference action at Redbird Arena.

Illinois State, 6-10 (2-3 MVC), had four players score in double figures. Shedrick Ford and Shawn Jeppson had 11 points apiece, while Randy Rice chipped in 10 points for the 'Birds. Bojang also posted his fifth double-double of the season with a game-high 11 rebounds. Andy Strandmark also came off the bench to chip in eight points and seven boards.

The Sycamores were led in scoring by Terence Avery with 22 points. Marcus Howard was the only other player for Indiana State to score in double digits with 11 points. Djibril Kante led the Sycamores on the boards with seven rebounds.

Indiana State, 3-11 (1-4 MVC) had the lead for the majority of the first half until Jeppson made a lay-up with 1:50 remaining that gave the Redbirds a 27-26 advantage. A jumper by Howard gave the Sycamores the lead again 28-27, but Bojang converted on a three-point play and scored on a tip-in at the buzzer to give the 'Birds a 33-30 lead heading into halftime.

Deren, Creighton Shoot Down Illinois State

OMAHA, Neb. – Brody Deren went 7-10 from the field, notching 16 points and five blocked shots to lead Creighton past Illinois State, 63-56, in Missouri Valley Conference men's basketball action Wednesday in Omaha, Neb.

Illinois State (6-11, 2-4) was led by Baboucar Bojang who had 15 points. Shawn Jeppson also reached double digits on the evening, scoring 14. Creighton improves to 10-5 overall and 5-1 in the Valley. McKinney ended the game with 10 points while Tyler Michael Lindeman also dished out 10.

After a solid and equal first half, the score was tied 31 all during the break. The game remained fairly even through the first ten minutes, until Creighton broke out to an eight point lead, its biggest of the game at the 10:16 mark. The Redbirds pulled to within one after a jumper by Jeppson with four minutes remaining, setting the score at 55-54.

The Bluejays pulled ahead, however, leading by three, 59-56, with just over a minute left in the game, Shedrick Ford had the chance to bring the Redbirds within one, but missed a jumper from the elbow of the key. The missed shot followed by two Redbird turnovers led to Tyler McKinney's three-point basket that put the Jays up by six, securing the win.

Illinois State Defeats SMS in Thriller

NORMAL, Ill. – Casey Reid sunk a free throw with no time remaining on the clock to give Illinois State the victory, 61-60, over Southwest Missouri State in Missouri Valley Conference action tonight at Redbird Arena.

Illinois State, 7-11 (3-4 MVC), trailed most of the game, but took the lead for the first time at 52-51 on a lay-up by Randy Rice with 3:00 remaining in the contest. Gregg Alexander gave the 'Birds the lead again at 58-57 with just under a minute left with a three-point basket.

Two free throws by Shedrick Ford extended the Illinois State lead to three, 60-57, with 19 seconds left, but a three-point basket by SMS's Terrance McGee tied the game at 60 with 10 seconds remaining. With no time-outs left, Illinois State went the length of the floor and Reid was fouled on his shot attempt as the clock expired. Reid needed only his first free throw attempt to seal the victory.

Shawn Jeppson led the 'Birds in scoring with 14 points, while Gregg Alexander and Dirk Williams contributed 11 and 10 points respectively.

Alexander, Illinois State Sinks Bradley

PEORIA, Ill. – Gregg Alexander scored a game-high 16 points, including 4-of-7 shooting from three-point range, leading the Illinois State men's basketball team to a 58-55 win in Missouri Valley Conference action Wednesday night at Carver Arena in Peoria.

With the win, Illinois State (8-11, 4-4) notches its first conference road victory of the year and first win at Carver Arena since January 21, 1998, when the 'Birds held on for a 57-54 victory. Bradley drops to 5-12, 2-6 on the year.

Alexander led all scorers while Shedrick Ford added 14 points for Illinois State. Bradley's Reggie Hall totaled 15 points on the evening followed by Danny Granger who had 11.

Ahead by three points with two and half minutes left, Ford hit a crucial jumper on the line as the shot clock sounded to give ISU another five-point cushion. A foul by Ford a minute later put Danny Granger at the line where he hit both attempts and pulled BU to within three.

With possession and 16 seconds left, Bradley's Tucker threw up a mercy trey but Andy Strandmark grabbed the rebound as time expired.

Bojang Doubles Up UNI as Redbirds Win Fourth Straight

NORMAL, Ill. – Baboucarr Bojang notched his seventh double-double of the season, posting 23 points and 15 rebounds, a career high, to lead Illinois State to its fourth straight victory, a 70-55 decision over Northern Iowa in Missouri Valley Conference basketball action at Redbird Arena.

Also leading the 'Birds past the Panthers was Shedrick Ford, who tipped in 13 points and seven rebounds and Gregg Alexander along with Shawn Jeppson who had 11 apiece.

The Redbirds jumped on the board early, taking a 20-15 advantage with nine minutes left in the first half, led by a 12-point effort by Bojang who finished the first half a perfect 6-of-6.

A layup by Greene and three-pointer by Alexander gave ISU a 13-point lead with five minutes to play before intermission. Alexander hit his third trey of the half at the 3:40, shooting a perfect 4-of-4 through 17 minutes of the game and, combined, Alexander and Bojang were 10-of-10.

Redbirds Sweep Bradley with 60-51 Defeat

NORMAL, Ill. – For the first time in four years, the Illinois State men's basketball team swept Bradley, taking the second meeting of the year with a 60-51 decision tonight at Redbird Arena in front of 8,663 fans.

Illinois State (11-12, 7-5) last swept the Braves in 1998. Bradley falls to 7-14, 4-8 in the Valley.

Early in the first half, Illinois State's Baboucar Bojang and Shawn Jeppson took control of the Redbird offense giving them a 9-2 run over the Braves, after Bojang followed a shot by Randy Rice pounding it through the hoop, giving the 'Birds their first two points of the game. Then it was Jeppson keeping the run going, scoring an early five points, after being fouled by Bradley's James Gillingham on a three point attempt, sinking all three of his free throws and finishing a reverse layup over the Braves defense.

Shedrick Ford led all scorers with 16 points, followed by 14 from Jeppson and 13 from Bojang, Gilbert and Hall led the Braves with 12 a piece.
