Next Game

Creighton (9-5, 4-1 MVC) hosts the league's preseason favorite, Illinois State (6-10, 2-3 MVC), to open a two-game homestand on Wednesday in a 7:05 p.m. contest.

Scouting the Bluejays

Creighton improved to 9-5 on the season with a 76-72 win at SMS on Sunday. The Jays are tied for first place with a 4-1 mark in the MVC, matching their best league start since 1989-90.

Despite knee surgery that caused him to miss three games, Kyle Korver leads Creighton in scoring (16.0), assists (3.2) and steals (2.10) while ranking as the team's second-best rebounder (5.5).

Sixth man Terrell Taylor averages 12.1 points per game off the bench, while center Brody Deren chips in with 10.4 points and a team-high 6.1 rebounds per contest.

Scouting the Redbirds

The league's preseason favorite, Illinois State is 6-10 and 2-3 in The Valley this season. The Redbirds hopes of a breakthrough season were dashed in the opening minutes of the season when MVC Player of the Year Tarise Bryson dislocated his wrist and was lost for the year.

In his absence, junior college transfer Baboucarr Bojang leads ISU with 14.4 points and 7.8 rebounds per game. Seniors Shawn Jeppson (10.9) and Shedrick Ford (10.8) also score in double-digits.

The Redbirds have alternated wins and losses in their last four games and will be looking to snap a seven-game road losing streak dating back to last year.

The Coaches

Creighton's Dana Altman (Eastern New Mexico, 1980) is in his eighth year as head coach of the Bluejays, owning a 132-91 (.592)

mark at CU and a career ledger of 215-158 (.576) in his 13th year as an NCAA Division I head coach. Altman was named 2001 MVC Coach of the Year after leading the Bluejays to a 24-8 mark and their third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance last year. Creighton has improved its win total in every season under Altman and his teams have played in the postseason in seven of the past 10 years. He's assisted by Greg Grensing, Len Gordy and Darian DeVries.

Illinois State's Tom Richardson (St. Xavier, '77) is in his third year as head coach at Illinois State, owning a 37-39 record in that time. Prior to becoming the head coach, he had been an assistant at ISU to Kevin Stallings for six years during a run of four postseason bids. After going 10-20 his rookie campaign, Richardson's Redbirds went 21-9 and lost in the first round of the NIT last season. He is assisted by Chad Altadonna, Doug Novsek and Anthony Beane.

The Illinois State Series

Illinois State leads the all-time series with Creighton 31-13, though the Jays have won five of the last six games in the series. Creighton has won three in a row over ISU in Omaha, including last year's 78-69 decision. Creighton won the first meeting between these teams, 76-72, in Normal on Jan. 2

Last Game vs. Redbirds

Creighton won its 11th straight regular-season MVC game with a 76-62 win at Illinois State. The win was just the second in the last 17 tries in Normal for the Jays.

Creighton trailed 48-44 before Kyle Korver nailed consecutive three-pointers to give CU the necessary momentum for the win. Creighton shot a blistering 31-for-50 from the field (62 percent) while holding ISU to just one field goal in the game's final 12:27. Korver led all players with 24 points on 8-for-9 shooting from the floor and 5-for-5 at the line. Also in double-figures were Terrell Taylor (15), Brody Deren (14) and Joe Dabbert, who notched his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds. ISU was led by 13 points from Baboucarr Bojang.

Creighton's Last Game

Kyle Korver and Terrell Taylor each scored 20 points to lead Creighton University to a 76-72 win over Southwest Missouri State Sunday. Neither team led by more than seven points throughout the game. Southwest Missouri led 36-34 at halftime but suffered its third straight conference loss.

A 3-pointer by Daniel Novak at the 6-minute mark cut Creighton's lead to 64-62 but Taylor answered with his third of four 3-pointers to give Creighton a four-point margin.

After two Terrance McGee free throws got Southwest Missouri to within 69-68 with 3:04 left, Taylor sank his final 3-pointer to put Creighton up 72-68.

With Creighton leading 73-70, Southwest Missouri had a chance to tie but a pass from Tamarr Maclin to Monwell Randle went out of bounds with 23 second left. McGee led Southwest Missouri with 18 and Robert Yanders added 14.

Bench Getting It Done

With 10 players averaging 15.0 minutes per game or more, Dana Altman's club continues to get tremendous production off the bench. Creighton got 49 points off the pine in its 88-74 win over Evansville.

This year, Creighton's bench has accounted for 45 percent of the team's points, 45 percent of the team's rebounds and 48 percent of the team's assists while playing 43 percent of the minutes, as seen below:

Stat	Starting Five (Pct.)	Reserves (Pct.)
Points	594 (55.1)	484 (44.9)

Starting Lineup Survivor

Mike Lindeman is the only Creighton player to start all 14 games for the Jays this season. What's surprising is Lindeman did not start any games last year as a freshman. Nine different players have earned starting nods for Creighton this season.

Sprinting Out of the Gate

Creighton's 4-1 start in MVC action is their best open to league play since the 1989-90 squad opened 4-1 during a season they finished 21-12 and advanced to the NIT. The last time they started better than 4-1 was when the 1988-89 team began with an 8-1 league start won finished as regular-season champs with an 11-3 MVC record.

Korver Looks For History

Junior forward Kyle Korver leads Creighton and ranks among the league leaders in points (6th), assists (5th) and steals (1st). If Korver can maintain his team-lead in those three categories, he'd become the first player in school history to do that since they began recording steals in 1980-81.

Double-Digits From Downtown

Creighton hit a season-high 10 three-pointers in 20 attempts vs. SMS while matching a yearly-best by making 50 percent of their attempts. Last year CU had 10 or more three-pointers in eight different games. The Jays have now won 14 straight games when they've hit 50 percent or better of their three-pointers dating to a 77-75 loss to Northern Iowa on Jan. 2, 2000 when they were 8-for-15.

Closing In On A Grand Achievement

Junior Kyle Korver enters this week with 935 points and is bidding to become the 28th member of Creighton's 1,000-point club. Last season Creighton had two players surpass 1,000-Ryan Sears (1,309) and Ben Walker (1,238).

Korver leads CU this year with 16.0 points per game. Below is a list of the teams that he has scored the most points against. Of note is that the teams ranked second through fourth are CU's next three opponents.

Opponent	G	Points
SMS	7	95
Illinois State	5	89
Bradley	5	75
Wichita State	4	69

Judging by the numbers, SMS and Illinois State are the two teams that Korver has torched the most. Korver's history against SMS began as a freshman when he made six consecutive three-pointers in Springfield and had 18 points. As for Illinois State, Korver is 31-for-46 (67.4 percent) from the field vs. the Redbirds in his career, including an 8-for-9 showing on Jan. 2. He's made a whopping 60 percent of his three-pointers (15-of-25) and has been perfect in 12 free throw attempts.

Starting Lineup With An Iowa Flavor

All four Iowa natives on the Creighton roster earned a spot in the starting lineup during both games last week. Those four include Tyler McKinney, Kyle Korver, Michael Lindeman and Brody Deren.

Charity Stripe Success

One reason Creighton's been able to win close games such as Sunday's 76-72 thriller at SMS is because of clutch free throw shooting. The calm under pressure was crucial because the largest lead in the game by either team was seven points, and CU owned a lead between one and five points during the final 14:00 of the game.

This season the Jays have made 55-of-69 (79.7 percent) at the stripe in the final five minutes of games this year and 72.2 percent during all attempts this year.

In fact, the Jays have made 60 percent or more of their free throw attempts in all 14 games this year and 36 straight contests dating to last year's 14-of-24 (58.3 percent) showing vs. Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 23, 2000.

More Charity

Creighton hit a season-high 29 free throws in 34 attempts vs. Evansville. The last time they hit 30 free throws in a game came Jan. 29, 2000 vs. Wichita State, which they did in 42 attempts.

McKinney Protecting the Rock

With consecutive strong showings, Tyler McKinney appears to have gained the edge in the battle for starting point guard honors. The true freshman had eight points, four assists and three rebounds without a turnover in 29 minutes of play vs. SMS.

The last time Creighton had a freshman with four or more assists but no turnovers was when Ryan Sears did it vs. both Indiana State and Bradley during the 1997-98 season.

Career Nights At The Point

Point guards Tyler McKinney and Ismael Caro each scored in double figures for the first time all season vs. Evansville. McKinney, making his second career start, had 10 points and three assists in 17 minutes. Caro reached his high with 12 points, hitting 4-of-5 shots. He added three steals and an assist, but also turned the ball over five times in 18 minutes.

Dabbert Sparks the Bench

Sophomore forward Joe Dabbert has proven to be a nice fit off the Creighton bench of late. Since coming off the pine, Dabbert has made 24-of-37 percent of his shots from the field, good for 64.9 percent. He has made 50 percent or more of his shots from the field in 10 straight games. In addition, he has made 15-of-16 (.938) free throws in that time.

He recorded the first double-double of his career at Illinois State on Jan. 2 when he had 10 points and 10 rebounds in just 19 minutes of action vs. the Redbirds.

When We Were Freshmen

Freshman Jimmy Motz is averaging 5.0 points and 1.7 rebounds per game while shooting 27.3 percent from three-point range and 36.4 percent overall. Here's how he compares to the first nine games of Kyle Korver's career:

Player	MIN	FG/A	3FG/A	REB	RPG	PTS I	PPG
Korver	120	17-45	11-35	25	2.8	52	5.8
Motz	146	16-44	9-33	15	1.7	45	5.0

A Trifecta Tradition

Based on Creighton's tradition of success and productivity behind the three-point line, you've got to figure that one of the main points of emphasis for each opposing coach that scouts the Jays is to take away the good looks from long-range.

That being said, Northern Iowa joined Southwest Missouri State (on 1/12/98) as the only teams in the last six years to hold CU without a first-half three-pointer.

Creighton missed all four first-half threepoint attempts vs. UNI on Jan. 5, snapping a streak of 22 straight halves with at least one trifecta dating to a 0-for-5 second half showing vs. Southern Illinois on Jan. 31, 2001.

Points Not A Problem

Creighton has scored 75 or more points in five consecutive games, the first time they have done that since early in the 1999-2000 season. The last time they did it in six straight games was during the 1998-99 campaign, while the last time they did it in seven in a row was 1988-

Creighton's 77.0 points per game average this season leads the MVC by almost two points a game over Southern Illinois. Creighton's 77.0 points per game is the highest since the 1989-90 team scored 78.7 points per game during a 21-12 year.

Good Shooters Or Better Selection?

Creighton shot a season-best 62 percent from the floor in its win at Illinois State, canning 31-of-50 shots from the floor. It helps that CU's "Big Three" went a combined 21-for-27 (76.9), as Kyle Korver was 8-for-9, Brody Deren 6-for-7 and Terrell Taylor 7-for-11.

The last time CU shot better than 60 percent for a game was Feb. 28, 2000 when they were 34-for-52 (65.4 percent) vs. Evansville. The last time they shot better than 60 percent on the road came on Jan. 20, 1999 at Evansville when they hit 35-of 57 shots, good for 61.4 percent.

Prior to doing it vs. Illinois State, the last time Creighton shot 60 percent or better in both halves of the same game was on Feb. 2, 1997 when they hosted Evansville and shot 61.9 percent in the first half, 65.2 percent in the second half and 63.6 percent (28-44) overall.

Dana Altman's Creighton teams are now 49-2 when shooting 50 percent or better. They have won 17 straight when making more than half their attempts dating back to an 88-83 loss at Evansville on Jan. 23, 2000.

It's worth noting that the CU performance came on the same night that they shot a season-low eight three-pointers, making four. That's the fewest number of three-pointers attempted since a 3-for-6 showing from downtown vs. Southern Utah on Jan. 20, 1997, a span of 147 games.

Workin' Overtime

The loss at Northern Iowa dropped Creighton's record in overtime under Dana Altman to 5-6, including a 1-1 mark this season. Creighton is 35-38 all-time in overtime.

Double-Digit Half Dozen

Creighton had six players with 11 points or more in its 90-65 romp over Mississippi Valley State. The last time CU had six players in double-figures was a 102-69 win over Evansville on Feb. 28, 2000.

This season, Creighton has had 12 different players score 10 or more points in a game. In fact, the only player who hasn't reached double-digits this year is redshirt freshman walk-on Dan Bresnahan.

Healthy Knee, Healthy Numbers

After missing three games following arthroscopic surgery on his meniscus, junior Kyle Korver returned to the floor an amazing nine days after his Dec. 20 procedure. Korver's game has been getting healthier too, as seen below:

Stat	FG's	FG%	3FG's	3FG%	PPG	RPG
After Injury	25-47	.532	12-26	.462	16.4	5.0
Before Injury	27-68	.397	15-49	.306	15.7	6.0

Korver made a splash in his return when he had 12 points and eight rebounds in 11 minutes off the bench vs. Mississippi Valley State. He then went 8-for-9 (including 3-for-3 on three-pointers) to score 24 points at Illinois State. In CU's loss at UNI, he had just 13 points but did lead the Jays with four assists and four steals in 40 minutes. He responded from the loss with 13 points, five rebounds and a career high-tying six assists vs. Evansville on Jan. 9. Korver then nailed 5-of-8 three-pointers at SMS on Jan. 13 en route to 20 points and five rebounds vs. SMS.

As a team, last year's team had 64 more assists than turnovers, while this year's team has the same number of turnovers and assists.

Altman Third on CU Victory List

With his win over Evansville on Jan. 9, Dana Altman has surpassed Tom Apke for third on the school's all-time list with 131 victories. Below is a list of Creighton's victory leaders:

Rk.	W-L	Coach
1.	163-66	Arthur A. Schabinger
2.	138-118	John J. "Red" McManus

Moving Up The Charts

Just a junior, Kyle Korver has moved into third in Creighton history with 190 career three-pointers, passing Matt Roggenburk (1986-90) who had made 185. Korver's teammate the previous two seasons, Ryan Sears, owns the school record with 245 career trifectas. Korver has made a three-pointer in each of the last 21 games he's appeared in. With his shooting display (5-of-8) at SMS on Jan. 13, Korver has now made five three-pointers or more in a game on 11 occasions in his career, including twice this year.

Fellow junior Terrell Taylor owns 107 career three-pointers and in the Xavier game passed Ben Walker (1997-01) for 10th on the career chart at CU. Taylor leads the team with 31 three-pointers this season.

Home Sweet Civic

Creighton is 22-1 at home since the last home game of the 1999-00 season, losing only to Xavier in that time. Xavier snapped a CU-record 20-game home winning streak on Dec. 20 that had ranked as the seventh longest active streak in Division I.

Before the Xavier setback, the last time the Bluejays had suffered a home defeat was a 92-83 loss on Feb. 19, 2000, when Southern Illinois escaped Omaha with a victory. It was Creighton's second non-conference loss at home in the last five seasons, the other being a 75-67 loss to #19 Tulsa on Jan. 12, 2000.

Trifectas Troubling Trend

After 14 games this season, Creighton has hit 88-of-280 of its three-pointers, good for 31.4 percent, as nine different players have at least one trey. If the season ended today, that 31.4 percent would rank as the lowest mark from long-range since the 1993-94 squad. By comparison, last year after 14 games, the Jays were 106-for-310, making 34.2 percent of their trifectas.

Taylor Gets Hot vs. Bears

Junior Terrell Taylor was expected to shine for Creighton this season, and Sunday afternoon Taylor's offensive arsenal was on full display. Taylor made 7-of-14 shots from the floor, including 4-of-7 from three-point range to finish with 20 points. It marked Taylor's first 20-point game of the year after doing it twice as a freshman and twice as a sophomore.

Dialing Long Distance

Count on more than a couple three-pointers being launched when the Bluejays host Illinois State.

The Jays have gone 226 consecutive games with a three-pointer, including all 223 games under the direction of Dana Altman. Creighton's last game without a three-pointer was a 59-53 loss at Illinois State on Feb. 20, 1993 when Rick Johnson was the coach.

Going a step further, Creighton has hit three or more trifectas in 172 consecutive games dating to a 58-57 overtime loss to Northern Iowa on Feb. 16, 1996. In that game, CU was 2-for-16 from long-range.

Both streaks appeared in serious jeopardy at Northern Iowa, as CU made its first trifecta with 8:09 left in the second half. Creighton's next three baskets were also three-pointers coming in a span of 1:40, but that's all the trey's Creighton would make for the game.

A March Tradition

Did you know that Creighton is one of 25 teams nationally to have played in the NCAA Tournament each of the last three years? The select company, listed alphabetically, includes Arizona, Arkansas, Cincinnati, Creighton, Duke, Florida, Gonzaga, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan State, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Stanford, Syracuse, Temple, Tennessee, Texas, UCLA, Winthrop and Wisconsin.

Creighton (5-2, 1-0) responded with an 18-2 run, including 3-pointers from Taylor and Austin Collier, and two baskets off turnovers from Ismael Caro, to take a 48-35 lead with 12 minutes left in the game. With the win, Creighton extended its school-record home winning streak to 20 games.	(AP) - David Boyden scored 19 points to match a career high and lead five players in double figures as Western Kentucky beat Creighton 95-61 Wednesday night. The win avenged the then-No. 17 Hilltoppers' 94-91 double overtime loss to Creighton on Nov. 27 in Omaha, Neb., Western's first loss of	Creighton had its 20-game home winning streaksnapped in a 72-65 loss to Xaiver. The loss was just the second in the last five years to a non-conference team at home. Xavier led most of the first half and owned a 37-33 advantage at the break. Creighton took a few one point leads in the second half, including a 54-53 margin with 10:37 left in the game before the momentum changed. Following an offensive foul by Xavier star David West, CU forward Terrell Taylor was given a technical foul for taunting, which allowed Xavier to tie the game. After Taylor responded to give CU a two-point lead, West converted a three-point play and the Musketeers never trailed the rest of the way. After Xavier opened up a 65-59 lead with 4:43 to go, Creighton got within two points on several occasions but they did not score in the final 2:13 of the game.
