The Game Facts

- This is the 55th meeting between the two schools with Indiana State leading the series 27-25-2. Illinois State has won the last five meetings overall and six of the last seven at Hancock Stadium.
- The 'Birds and the Sycamores have met every season since 1969, with the series beginning in 1936.
- With a victory today, the Redbirds will post a .500 or better winning percentage in five of the last six seasons.
- An Indiana State loss would mark the first ever 0-7 league mark in the history of the Gateway Football Conference. The last winless conference team was Illinois State (0-6) in 1997.
- Under Denver Johnson, the Redbirds are 2-1 in home finales and 2-1 in season finales.
- Today's game marks the first time in the history of the program that the Redbirds have had 12 regular season games.
- With the Redbirds, Denver Johnson is 6-4 in the month of November.

Scouting the Sycamores

- Indiana State is located in Terre Haute, Ind., and has an enrollment of 11,484. A member of the Gateway Football Conference, Indiana State was founded in 1865 and began competing in football in 1896.
- The Sycamores are riding a six-game losing streak and have lost seven straight conference games.
- Indiana State is 0-6 when trailing after the first quarter.
- The Sycamores rank No. 9 nationally in pass defense by only allowing 152.45 yards per game, but they are No. 75 in rushing defense with 173.09 yards per game.
- Indiana State is coming off its season high point total with 28 against Western Illinois. The Sycamore offense ranks No. 109 nationally with 271.18 yards per game and are No. 110 in scoring offense with just 15.18 points per game.
- Indiana State has been outscored 171-92 in the first half of action this season.
- The Sycamores have converted only two of their 15 fourth down conversions on the campaign.
- The Indiana State offensive line has allowed 26 sacks this season.

Senior Salute

Edwards the Great

Senior running back Sha-Ron Edwards entered the season with 190 yards on 41 carries, but the Uniondale, N.Y., native not only has left his mark in Illinois State history, but also the Gateway Football Conference. With his career-high 239 yards at SMS, Edwards became only the second running back in Redbird history to post two 200-yard rushing games in a single season joining Toby Davis in 1992. Edwards also went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark and now has 1,210 yards on the season, only second behind Davis' 1992 total of 1,561 yards. His 5.7 yards per rush also ranks No. 2 in ISU history.

The Sackman Cometh

Senior defensive end Ray Robinson posted his third three sack game of the season at SMS Saturday and recorded his 12 sack of the season. Robinson's 12 sacks ties the Illinois State school record for sacks in a season shared with John Kropke, who did it in 1986.

Move to Memorial?

To knowledge, there aren't any negotiations taking place, but the Illinois State football team might rather play at Memorial Stadium in Terre Haute, Ind., this weekend. The Redbirds are unbeaten outside the state of Illinois with wins at Youngstown State and SMS and Illinois State owns a 2-4 mark at home.

A Grand Four-peat

With Sha-Ron Edwards 239 yards at SMS, the senior running back went over 1,000 yards for the season. Edwards joins Quincy Washington (2002) and Willie Watts (2001 & 2000) to give the Redbirds a 1,000-yard rusher for four straight seasons for the first time in the history of the program.

Double Back

Much has been made of running back tandems in the Gateway Football Conference, but the Redbirds' Sha-Ron Edwards and Demetres Johnson are the best duo statistically in the league. Totaling 1,792 yards on the ground, Edwards has legged 1210 yards on the season, while Johnson has gained 582 on the ground. The Redbird pair ranks just in front of UNI's Terrance Freeney and Richard Carter's 1,747 yards.

What a Rush

If it seems like the Redbirds are racking up rushing yards at a record pace it's because they are. Through 11 games the 'Birds are averaging 239.4 yards per game on the ground, which would shatter the school record of 210.1 yards per contest set in 1987. In addition, the 'Birds are logging a 5.2 yard per carry average, which tops the school mark of 4.7 in 2000.

Chrest Will Help Your Smile

Junior defensive end Josh Chrestman returned to the starting lineup at SMS after missing three games due to injury. Chrestman lifted the Redbird defense with a career-best 12 tackles, including a pair of quarterback sacks. He also added five quarterback hurries and a pass break up.

Another Quick Hitter

Illinois State had two one-play scoring drives in the loss to Western Illinois and opened up the game at SMS with another one to give the 'Birds three one-play scoring drives in the last two weeks. At SMS, Mike Souza dropped a 50-yard scoring pass in the hands of Dwayne Smith on the 'Birds first possession of the game.

Smith is Steady

On the Redbirds' first play from scrimmage against SMS, Mike Souza connected with Dwayne Smith for a 50-yard touchdown pass. With the reception, Smith continued his string of catching a pass in every game with the Redbirds. His streak of 22 straight games with a catch ties the second longest string in Illinois State history. He also needs just three more catches to become the seventh receiver in school history with 100 career catches.

A Carroll-ing We Will Go

Junior kicker Stephen Carroll pushed all six of his extra point attempts through the uprights at SMS and increased his consecutive PAT string to 79. He already owned the second-longest streak in Redbird history and is seven from owning the school mark. He is also second all-time in Gateway history and needs 23 more to break the league mark.

The Great Grigsby

Junior linebacker Boomer Grigsby continues his climb up the top 10 list of all-time Redbird tacklers. With 12 more stops against SMS, Grigsby now has 440 tackles in his career, which ranks No. 4, and he is one of only four Redbirds to total 400 stops in a career. He also has 168 tackles on the season, which ranks tied for No. 4 in the single season record book. With 13.3 stops per game, Grigsby needs 19 stops against Indiana State to claim the school's single season tackle mark of 186 held by current assistant coach Galen Scott in 1998 and 20 for the Gateway Football Conference record of 187 held by Ian Dominelli of Youngstown State in 1999.

This Schedule is Rank

And there is good reason for it. According to the NCAA, the 'Birds own the fifth-toughest schedule in I-AA football. The Redbirds have played four of their last six games against ranked opponents and have faced a total of five ranked foes on the season. The Redbirds' past opposition owns a combined record of 57-33 or a .633 winning percentage.

Tough As Niall

Redshirt freshman Niall Campbell tallied his first career start at SMS and the middle linebacker responded with a career-best 11 tackles, including a forced fumble and recovery. Campbell now has 26 tackles on the season and three forced fumbles.

Paper or Plastic?

Grocery stores around town might be contacting the Redbird defense in the off-season, as the 'Birds have efficiently bagged opponent quarterbacks. The 'Birds have posted 31 sacks on the season and for the second time this season, the 'Birds totaled seven quarterback sacks at Youngstown State. The first seven sack game occurred at Eastern Illinois earlier in the season.

Get Your Picks on Route 66

With another interception at SMS, the Redbird defense now has seven picks on the season through 11 games, three more than it did all of last season. Andrew Papoccia and Sam Yeargin lead the 'Birds with two picks, while Tyler Larick, William Rolle and Antwan Oliver each have one.

The Legend of Laurént

Wide receiver Laurént Robinson is starting to carve his place in Redbird history early in his career. As a true freshman, Robinson is second on the team with three touchdown receptions. His three TD catches tie him for the all-time Redbird lead by a true freshman. In 1984, ISU running back Jason Johnson hauled in three scoring passes in his first year with the program. On the season, Robinson has 11 catches for 138 yards.

Souzy Playmaker

At SMS, quarterback Mike Souza posted 163 yards of total offense which gives him 3,852 yards for his career. His total ranks No. 5 in the Redbird record books and he is the 10th player in Illinois State history to reach the 3,000-yard plateau. He is averaging 175.1 yards per game for his career, which is second all-time behind Kevin Glenn's 238.2 yards per contest.

All-America U

Illinois State's football program has produced at least one all-American player in 17 of its last 21 seasons. Over the last five seasons, 19 players from ten different positions have been honored. Boomer Grigsby and Jonathan Friend were both honored following the 2002 season.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET

Redbirds Rally Against Indiana State; End Season with a 20-12 Win

November 16, 2002

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. – Vito Golson and Quincy Washington each scored a touchdown in the final game of their careers to help the Illinois State football team come from behind to beat Indiana State, 20-12, Saturday in front of 2,652 people in frigid conditions at Memorial Stadium in Terre Haute, Ind.

Golson ended the game with seven catches and 136 receiving yards while Washington rushed for 74 yards. It was Golson's fifth 100-yard receiving game under head coach Denver Johnson and his third of the year.

A scoreless game through the first quarter, the Sycamores jumped to an early six-point lead in the second when Soso Dede rushed for his second touchdown of the year, a three-yard scurry. Indiana State kicker Mike Megyesi (22-26) couldn't connect on the extra point effort, missing his fourth PAT of the year.

Up by six, the Indiana State offense continued to take charge when QB Julian Reese connected with Chris Lewis on a five-yard pass at the 6:52 mark. Going for the two-point conversion, Reese's pass was intended for Tommy Signars in the endzone, but it sailed through his fingers, leaving the score at 12-0.

The Redbirds managed to get points on the board before the half after Stephen Carroll hit his 12th field goal of the year with 45 seconds on the clock. After two complete passes from Mike Souza to Golson for a gain of 29 yards, the 'Birds were in scoring position on the eight yard line but on the third down, Souza's pass into scoring territory was out of Golson's reach. Golson finished the season and his career with 29 consecutive games with a catch as Illinois State trailed 12-3 after 30 minutes of play.

Illinois State came back in the third to score its ninth TD of the year on the road. With five minutes left in the third quarter, a 25-yard completion from Kevin Zouzounis, who replaced Souza, to Golson set up a 15-yard pass for the Redbirds, pulling Illinois State to within two of the Sycamores, 12-10, after Carroll scored the extra point.

The 'Birds got a break with 1:31 remaining in the third after a forced fumble on Reese by Stuart Sands was recovered by Illinois State's Mike Blough. As the time expired and the fourth quarter ensued, Washington pushed through the Sycamore line for a crucial first down and four plays later rushed for a seven-yard run at the 13-minute mark to give Illinois State its first lead of the game. It was Washington's 16th career TD and ninth of the season.

Up 17-12 after Carroll made good on his PAT, the score held until 4:26 was left on the clock and Carroll kicked a 32-yard field goal that helped secure the Redbird victory, cushioning the lead to 20-12.

I-AA Committee a Little "Weis"er

Illinois State athletics director Perk Weisenburger, a Central Michigan alum, is entering his third year on the NCAA Division I-AA Football Committee. Among other things, the committee seeds the field and selects the eight at-large teams for the I-AA championship.

We Win ...

- Illinois State teams have won 113 conference championships -- an average of more than five per year -- since beginning Division I conference play in 1982 (from 1971-81, ISU was a Division I independent). Redbird teams compete in two different conferences.
- The football team plays in the Gateway, 17 sports compete in the Missouri Valley and the gymnastics team competes as an independent.
- Illinois State finished in the top four in 10 of 17 Valley titles during 2001-02, including league titles by men's cross country, women's tennis and softball and a tournament championship by women's tennis.
- ISU has won 16 conference All-Sports Trophies since '82, including five of the last eight in the MVC.
- Illinois State has been in the Gateway Football Conference for 17 years and has won 21 games in the last five years while winning 22 over its first 13 years of membership.

...But Not At The Expense of Good Grades

Illinois State didn't forget the "student" in student-athlete while it was piling up all its outstanding performances during the 2002-03 school year. Redbird athletics had another student-athlete (Abbie Scott, softball) named a Bone Scholar, the highest undergraduate academic honor at Illinois State. Scott became the eighth athlete to receive the honor in the last five years. In 2001, former linebacker Adam Waugh, who was named a National College Scholar-Athlete by The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, became the third Redbird football player to receive the honor.

GAME 1 – HANCOCK STADIUM
ILLINOIS STATE 27, DRAKE 13
Redbirds Top Drake in Season Opener

NORMAL, III.—The Illinois State football team needed a wake-up call during its season-opener against Drake Thursday evening. It took an early score by the Bulldogs to get the Redbirds fired-up in the 90-degree heat at Hancock Stadium as Illinois State pulled away to a 27-13 victory.

Drake got on the board early in the contest when Jonathan Taylor (24 carries, 50 yards) jumped over a pile of Redbird and Bulldog players to score the game's first touchdown. The extra point was wide right, but the touchdown put the Bulldogs up 6-0. It was the only lead Drake enjoyed.

Illinois State responded when Sha-Ron Edwards (16 carries, 152 yards, 2 TDs) got the ball rolling on a pair of first down runs, setting up a 17-yard touchdown run up the left sideline by Demetrus Johnson (20 carries, 82 yards, 1 TD), his first as a Redbird. Quarterback Mike Souza (8-of-16, 45 yards, 1 INT) and Edwards ran the option to perfection on the Redbirds' next series, as Edwards scored from 15 yards out, making the score 14-6.

A 48-yard field goal by Stephen Carroll put the Redbirds up 17-6 at halftime.

The ISU defense rose to the challenge on Drake's opening possession of the third quarter. Linebacker Cavarri Dailey forced and recovered a fumble at the Drake 37-yard line, setting up a 31-yard touchdown run by Edwards, making the score 24-6. The touchdown run put Edwards over 100 yards rushing for the first time in his Redbird career.

The Redbird defense also held up well against the run, holding the Bulldogs to only 10 yards rushing on the game until late in the third quarter when Taylor broke free on a 41-yard run.

An 85-yard run touchdown by Edwards was nullified early in the fourth quarter when the Redbirds were called for a clipping penalty. But the Redbirds made a break moments later when Tyler Larick recovered a fumbled punt at the Drake 10-yard line. Carroll followed with a 22-yard field goal to put Illinois State ahead 27-6.

Drake quarterback Connor Jostes connected with Shea Moroni on a 5-yard touchdown pass late for the game's final score.

Redbirds Drop 49-22 Decision at Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, III.—Former Illinois receiver Dwayne Smith had a career game against his old team, breaking an Illinois State record with 14 receptions on the day, but the Illini took advantage of an early Redbird turnover, as Illinois came away with a 49-22 victory Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium.

Smith (14 catches, 243 yards, 2 touchdowns) broke the school record for receptions in a game, a mark previously held by Darnell Jones. Jones set the record against Western Illinois on November 8, 1997. Quarterback Mike Souza had a career day as well, setting new personal highs in completions (33), attempts (56) and yards (385).

Souza moved the ball with ease during the game's first series. He completed his first four passes, including a 30-yard rollout to Smith at the Illinois 30-yard line.

Ramon Barber and Smith were at the receiving end of Souza's next three completions, as the Redbirds advanced the ball to the Illinois 5 yard line. Souza fumbled four plays later however, and the Illini recovered the ball in the end zone.

After the teams traded possessions, Illinois got on the board with 7:23 left in the first quarter. Quarterback Jon Beutjer (16-of-23, 207 yards, 4 touchdowns) was pressured by Ryan Thorne, but rolled right and found a wide-open Mark Kornfeld for a 32 yard touchdown pass, putting the Illini on top 7-0.

Beutjer connected with Kelvin Hayden on the Illini's next series. His 41-yard touchdown reception put Illinois up 14-0.

Illinois continued to work the arm of Beutjer, this time on a 30-yard scoring strike to Lonnie Hurst, putting the Illini up by three touchdowns before the end of the first quarter.

The Illini started the second quarter with possession, but linebacker Andrew Papoccia intercepted a Beutjer pass intended for Ada Adeyemo at the Illinois State 30. The Redbirds then marched downfield on a 15 play, 63-yard drive, which resulted in a 27-yard field goal by Stephen Carroll.

Dominating First Half Carries 'Birds

NORMAL, III.—The Illinois State football team used a first half onslaught to overwhelm the visiting Truman State Bulldogs, eventually closing the campaign with a convincing 49-6 victory Saturday night in front of 7,339 at Hancock Stadium.

After the Redbirds deferred the opening kickoff to Truman State, Bulldog running back Jerard Leverson fumbled on the second play from scrimmage. Boomer Grigsby recovered the ball at the Truman State 22 yard line.

Five plays later, Demetrus Johnson scored his second touchdown of the season from 1 yard out, putting the Redbirds up 7-0 just three minutes into the game.

Later in the quarter the Redbirds got some excellent special teams play from Andrew Papoccia. Papoccia faked out two Truman State defenders and advanced the ball 29 yards on a punt return into Bulldog territory. A pair of Redbird penalties couldn't stop the momentum as quarterback Mike Souza rolled right and found freshman Laurént Robinson open in the end zone for his first career touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The Redbirds caught a break on their next possession when it looked as if Johnson fumbled at mid-field. The referees awarded Truman State the ball, but reversed the call, saying Johnson's forward progress was down at the 50 yard line.

On the next play, Johnson scampered 49 yards along the right sideline for another Redbird touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

A Souza completion to Dwayne Smith and runs of 18 and 8 yards by Sha-Ron Edwards led to the Redbirds' fourth score of the game. Edwards fought his way up the middle before finding an opening to the end zone for his third touchdown of the season.

Illinois State continued their stellar play on special teams as Pete Holak blocked a Truman State punt and Sesamir Yearby recovered the ball at the Truman State 36-yard line.

The Bulldogs finally got on the board late in the fourth quarter when A.J. Eads took it in from 10 yards out. The extra point was blocked for the game's final score.

ILLINOIS STATE 21, #18 E. ILLINOIS 14
Fourth Quarter Heroics Lead 'Birds Over EIU

CHARLESTON, Ill. — Eastern Illinois led for three quarters during Saturday's game, but Illinois State, led by a fourth quarter safety and touchdown, and two defensive stops, pulled away down the stretch, winning the 91st meeting between the two teams 21-14 in front of 6,318 at O'Brien Stadium.

The win moved the Redbirds to 3-1, while Eastern Illinois dropped to 1-2.

The Redbird defense put pressure on Panther quarterback Andy Vincent from the get-go. After a first down run by Andre Raymond, the unit settled down as Ray Robinson picked up a sack and Mike Blough batted down a pass on third and long.

But things didn't go as well on the Redbirds' first offensive series. Quarterback Mike Souza (15-of-34, 215 yards, TD, INT) rolled right on the second play from scrimmage and threw a pass intended for Kevin Kreger. However, the ball ended up in the hands of Fred Miller who's 32-yard interception return for a touchdown resulted in an early 7-0 lead for Eastern Illinois.

Illinois State's next offensive series was much more successful than their last, but penalties stalled the 8-play, 38-yard drive, forcing the Redbirds to settle for a 44-yard Stephen Carroll field goal.

Raymond (22 carries, 110 yards) set the tone on the Panthers' third offensive series. The senior led a 6-play, 80-yard scoring drive, which ended with a 35-yard touchdown pass from Vincent to Ryan Voss who juggled the ball, but held on while crossing into the end zone, putting the Panthers up 14-3.

But an offensive pass interference call on a scoring strike to Joe Walkins (2 catches, 34 yards) from Souza negated a Redbird touchdown. A holding penalty put the Redbirds back even further. A Souza completion to Avery Massengale (2 catches, 43 yards) set up a 47-yard field goal by Carroll, making the score 14-6 late in the first quarter.

After a Redbird defensive stop, ISU scored when Eastern Illinois lined up to punt at its own 7. Cameron Siskovic broke through the line and blocked the punt. The ball rolled out of bounce in the end zone for a Redbird safety, tying the score at 14 apiece. The safety was the Redbirds' first since the 2000 season.

The 'Birds took the lead for the first time with 8:25 left in the game. Three plays into Illinois State's drive after the safety, Demetrus Johnson dashed 49 yards for a Redbird touchdown and a 21-14 lead.

Birds Wrap up Non-conference Slate with Loss

NORMAL, Ill. — Making their first appearance on the Illinois State campus, Florida Atlantic took advantage of a second half offensive surge to propel themselves to a 28-10 win over the Redbirds Saturday afternoon in front of 6,837 at Hancock Stadium.

Illinois State finished the non-conference part of their schedule with a 3-2 record, while Florida Atlantic, a Division I-AA Independent, moved to 3-2.

The Redbird defense picked up where they left off from a week ago as the unit did not allow a first down during their first two series.

Later in the first quarter, the defense continued their strong play as linebacker Sean Gilot recovered a Daveon Barron fumble at the ISU 4. The offense couldn't take advantage of the turnover however, and the score remained 0-0 after one quarter.

A strange turn of events happened early in the second quarter.

Quarterback Mike Souza (13-of-39, 100 yards, TD, 2 INTs) completed a pass to Mike Larson at the Florida Atlantic 31. On the next play however, Souza's pass was tipped and intercepted by Chris Laskowski. But as Laskowski rushed down the left sidelines, Mike Stegeman stripped the ball and Stafford Davis recovered it at the ISU 34.

From there, the offense kicked it into gear as the Redbirds went on a 7-play, 66-yard drive, ending with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Souza to Laréon Robinson in the corner of the end zone. Robinson's fingertip scoring catch was the second touchdown of his career and it gave the 'Birds a 7-0 lead.

The Redbird defense's streak of 15-straight series without giving up a score ended with 6:21 left in the second quarter. Florida Atlantic tight end Anthony Crissinger-Hill (4 catches, 88 yards 2 TDS) hauled in a 67-yard touchdown pass from Jared Allen to tie the game 7-7.

Illinois State received a scare on the ensuing kickoff when LaShawn Bullock fumbled deep in Redbird territory, but Kevin Kreger prevented the disaster by recovering the ball at the ISU 17.

After a Redbird punt, FAU began another scoring drive, this time catching a break in the process when offensive lineman Chris Shepherd recovered a Barron fumble at the ISU 11. Two plays later, Allen again found Crissinger-Hill, this time in the right corner of the end zone. Crissinger-Hill caught the touchdown pass in double coverage to give his team a 14-7 lead.

ISU head coach Denver Johnson gambled on the Redbirds' next series, deciding to go for it on fourth-and-1 at mid-field. Sha-Ron Edwards (17 carries, 98 yards) pounded his way through the middle for a first down to keep the drive alive.

The Redbirds open Gateway Conference play against Northern Iowa next Saturday at Hancock Stadium. Game time is slated for 1:30 p.m.

UNI Rallies Past the 'Birds on Family Day

NORMAL, Ill. — The Illinois State football team held a 7-point lead for three quarters Saturday against No. 15 Northern Iowa, but a strong Panther defense held the Redbirds to 48 yards total in the second half, resulting in a 16-7 Northern Iowa victory in front of 12,026 on Family Weekend at Hancock Stadium.

Northern Iowa put itself in position to score first when Tom Petrie (6-of-20, 135 yards TD, 2 INTs) hit Marlus Mays on a 54-yard pass completion. Two plays later however, Richard Carter fumbled at the ISU 1 and Leon Kittrell recovered the ball in the end zone.

The offense could not capitalize on the turnover though, and were forced to punt.

Defensively, the Redbirds held tough early on. Josh Chrestman picked up his second sack of the season, but the offense struggled to get points on the board. That all changed midway through the second quarter when Illinois State head coach Denver Johnson rolled the dice.

Johnson gambled on fourth-and-1 at the Northern Iowa 16, deciding to go for the first down instead of a field goal. A sweep to the right by Demetrus Johnson resulted in a first down, and then some. Johnson galloped into the end zone on a 16-yard run, resulting in a 7-0 score.

Tyler Larick stalled a Panther drive late in the second quarter when he intercepted a Petrie pass. The interception was the first of Larick's Redbird career.

But Larick wasn't the only Illinois State player to pick up his first INT. William Rolle's third quarter pick stalled a Northern Iowa drive at the Illinois State 28 after Petrie's pass slipped through the hands of a Panther receiver. Rolle returned the ball into Northern Iowa territory, but an illegal block in the back penalty by the Redbirds placed the ball back at the Redbird 14 and the offense couldn't capitalize.

Momentum swung to the Northern Iowa sideline early in the fourth quarter when Troy Maskel lined up to punt for the Redbirds. The ball sailed over Maskel's head and into the back of the end zone for a Panther safety.

After the free kick, Northern Iowa took the lead just two plays into the drive. Petrie completed a 58-yard touchdown pass to Brian Cutright, who broke several tackles on his way to the end zone.

The Panthers were given two chances at a two-point conversion when the Redbirds were called for pass interference on the first try. Terrence Freeney converted Northern Iowa's second try, making the score 10-7.

Carter went over 100 yards rushing on the Panthers' next possession when he ran 47 yards to the Illinois State 4. Freeney picked up where Carter left off and scored on the next play, putting the Redbirds away and giving the Panthers a 16-7 lead.

GAME 7 – MCANDREW STADIUM
#8 S. ILLINOIS 45, ILLINOIS STATE 17
SIU Tops Redbirds, 45-17

CARBONDALE, Ill. — The Illinois State football team ran into a Southern Illinois unit Saturday that had been clicking on all cylinders this season. The Salukis continued to click on all cylinders as they came out on top in a 45-17 victory over the Redbirds at McAndrew Stadium in Carbondale.

The Salukis caught a break on their first possession when the Redbirds were called for a roughing the punter penalty, keeping their offensive drive alive.

However, Sam Yeargin broke up a sure touchdown pass when he knocked the ball out of the hands of Southern Illinois receiver Kellen Allen. The Salukis had to settle for a 42-yard field goal by Craig Coffin.

Illinois State quarterback Mike Souza began to connect with his receivers on the 'Birds second possession, hitting Dwayne Smith on a 45-yard completion and Avery Massengale from 11 yards out. But a Royal Whitaker interception at the Saluki 25 stalled the drive and gave Southern Illinois the momentum they needed.

A 50-yard run by quarterback Joel Sambursky ended at the Redbird 25. Three plays later fullback Brandon Robinson sailed a halfback pass into the waiting hands of Courtney Abbott for a Saluki touchdown and a 10-0 lead.

Southern Illinois continued its nearly flawless offensive execution in the second quarter. This time it was Sambursky connecting on a 21-yard touchdown pass to Chris Kupec, giving the Salukis a 17-0 lead.

That's when Illinois State got their running game going on the legs of Sha-Ron Edwards. Edwards ran the ball four straight times up the middle of the Saluki defense, as he carried it from 17 yards out to cut the lead to 17-7 midway through the second quarter. A 1-yard touchdown run by Tom Koutsos put the Salukis up 24-7 at halftime.

With 8:49 left in the third quarter, Illinois State punter Troy Maskel mishandled a snap deep in Redbird territory. The ball bounced around before Frank Johnson recovered it in the end zone, giving Southern Illinois a 31-7 lead.

After a 50-yard field goal by Stephen Carroll made the score 31-10, the Redbird defense stepped up to the plate as Mike Blough pressured Sambursky into throwing an interception to Andrew Papoccia.

But after the Redbird offense took over, Whitaker nabbed his second Souza pass of the game, stalling the Redbird drive near midfield.

GAME 8 – HANCOCK STADIUM
#9 WESTERN KY. 27, ILLINOIS STATE 24
Western Ky. Spoils Redbirds' Homecoming

NORMAL, Ill. — Illinois State running back Sha-Ron Edwards rushed his way into the Redbird record books with his performance against Western Kentucky Saturday. But a late fourth quarter scoring drive by the Hilltoppers spoiled the ISU Homecoming party as Western Kentucky came away with a 27-24 victory in front of 8,945 at Hancock Stadium.

Edwards moved to No. 6 on the individual game rushing list with 233 yards Saturday. It was the most by a Redbird running back in the Denver Johnson era. His 36 carries were also a career-high.

However, Western Kentucky converted a crucial fourth down play late in the game when quarterback Justin Haddin completed a pass to Casey Rooney at the Redbird 6 yard line. That led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Lerron Moore, which was the game-winner.

The ISU defense held tough during their first appearance of the game. Defensive tackle Justin Martindale broke through the middle and stuffed Moore for a 3-yard loss, while Antwan Oliver broke up a Haddin pass on third down to force a Hilltopper punt.

The Redbirds took over and received a scare when Jonathan Deloach fumbled at mid-field. But Dwayne Smith recovered the ball to keep the drive going. The 10-play, 76-yard drive ended on a 9-yard touchdown run by Edwards, making the score 7-0.

After a 33-yard field goal by Matt Lange cut the Redbird lead to 7-3, running back Demetrus Johnson fumbled and Western Kentucky recovered at the ISU 45. That led to a go-ahead touchdown run by Moore, putting the Hilltoppers up 10-7.

On the Hilltoppers' next offensive series, Moore kept his team's drive going when he recovered a Haddix fumble at the Western Kentucky 48. A third down pass to Shannon Hayes pushed the ball to the ISU 30. From there, the Hilltoppers went to their running game. That's when the Redbird defense rose to the occasion.

Boomer Grigsby (19 tackles) and Andrew Papoccia stopped Moore on second down at the 14. Grigsby then stuffed Haddix on third down, and a personal foul penalty pushed the ball back even further. Western Kentucky had to settle for another field goal by Lange.

Antonio Veals' 61-yard kickoff return to start the second half immediately put Western Kentucky in Redbird territory. Three plays later, Haddix completed a 36-yard touchdown pass to Rooney, making the score 20-7.

GAME 9 – STAMBAUGH STADIUM
ILLINOIS ST. 35, YOUNGSTOWN ST. 25
Redbirds End Losing Skid; Roll Past Penguins

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio — Three straight scoring drives by Illinois State to start the game and 100-yard rushing efforts by Sha-Ron Edwards and LaShawn Bullock proved to be enough as the 'Birds ended Youngstown State's 11-game Homecoming win streak with a 35-25 victory Saturday night at Stambaugh Stadium.

With the win the 'Birds posted their first Gateway Football Conference victory of the season against three losses and improved their season mark to 4-5. ISU fell to 5-4 and 2-2 in the league.

Illinois State fielded a balanced offensive attack that posted 604 total yards, the eighth most in school history, powered by the legs of Edwards and Bullock. Edwards (183) and Bullock (106) became the first 100-yard rushing tandem since 2000 when Willie Watts and Walter James compiled 100 yards apiece against West Virginia Tech.

The Redbirds took the opening kickoff and went 54 yards on 11 plays, capped by a 43-yard field goal by Stephen Carroll. Dwayne Smith highlighted the drive with a pair of catches totaling 31 yards, which gave the Rantoul, Ill., native 1,000 career receiving yards at ISU. Smith finished the game with six catches for 118 yards, the second 100-yard receiving game of his career.

After ISU's Nick Terracina's 49-yard field goal attempt fell short, the Redbirds responded with their second score in as many drives. Freshmen receiver Laurent Robinson hauled in his third touchdown of the season with a 10-yard pass from Mike Souza to end a 9-play, 68-yard scoring drive that gave the 'Birds a 10-0 lead.

On the ensuing drive, the Redbird defense forced a Youngstown State punt, but the snap was high and punter Joe Bishop was tackled in the endzone by ISU's Earl Newby for a safety.

After the 2-point score, the Redbirds went into the endzone on their third straight drive when Sha-Ron Edwards cracked the plane from 7-yards out to put the Redbirds up 18-0 early in the second quarter.

Youngstown State finally broke into the scoring column with a 34-yard field goal by Terracina with 9:47 left in the first half and trailed the Redbirds 18-3, a margin that remained until halftime.

YSU closed the gap to 18-10 on the initial drive of the second half with an 8-yard pass from Aaron Marshall to Kyle Smith for the touchdown at the 12:46 mark in the third quarter.

A Carroll 22-yard field extended the Redbird lead to 21-10 at the 5:59 mark in the third quarter. Edwards added his second touchdown of the game with a nine-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter to push the lead to 28-10. Edwards' second score topped a 10-play, 86-yard drive.

YSU's Marshall threw his second touchdown pass of the game with a 25-yard strike to Mike Burns at the 12:15 mark in the fourth quarter. Again Illinois State responded when Souza found Smith down the right sideline for a 45-yard touchdown pass.

Souza finished the game with a 15-for-23 passing effort with 271 yards and two touchdowns. The defense finished with seven sacks, including a game-high three by senior defensive end Ray Robinson.

GAME 10 – HANCOCK STADIUM
#12 W. ILLINOIS 24, ILLINOIS ST. 20
Fourth Quarter TD Sinks Redbirds

NORMAL, Ill. — Despite leading for three quarters Saturday against No. 12 Western Illinois, the Illinois State football team allowed a go-ahead touchdown with 57 seconds left as the Redbirds dropped a 24-20 decision Saturday in front of 8,415 at Hancock Stadium.

The win moves Western Illinois to 6-3 on the season, 3-2 in the Gateway, while Illinois State dropped to 4-6, 1-4 in the Gateway.

Quarterback Russ Michna connected with Reggie Gray on a key fourth down conversion with 3 minutes to go in the game, setting up the go-ahead score. Gray was tackled at the Illinois State 15, eventually leading to a one-yard scoring run by Michna.

On the Leathernecks' first three possessions, running back Travis Glasford (26 carries, 160 yards) amassed 96 yards rushing on only nine carries. His 47-yard run midway through the first quarter set up a Justin Langan 19-yard field goal.

A 25-yard punt return by Gray and a 30-yard run by Glasford on Western Illinois' next possession looked to set up another field goal by Langan. However, a high snap slipped through the holder's hands, and Langan had to make the most of the situation, scooping the ball up and throwing it to a wide open Chad Daun for a nine-yard touchdown reception and a 10-0 lead.

The Redbirds got on the board early in the second quarter on a 20-yard field goal by Stephen Carroll. However, one play earlier, Steve Statz dropped a potential touchdown pass from Mike Souza, forcing the Redbirds to settle for three.

After a Ryan Hoffman punt pinned the Leathernecks deep in their own territory, defensive end Ray Robinson gave his team the momentum when he came around end and stripped the ball away from Michna. Robinson recovered the ball at the Leatherneck 3, giving the Redbirds a golden opportunity to tie the game.

They took advantage of the opportunity as Sha-Ron Edwards (20 carries, 52 yards) scored from three yards out, tying the game 10-10 with 4:08 left in the first half.

The Leathernecks turned the ball over again on their next possession. This time Antwan Oliver stripped the ball away from Glasford and Cavarri Dailey recovered it at the Western Illinois 32.

Souza then connected with Dwayne Smith on a 32-yard touchdown pass, making the score 17-10, as the Redbirds scored 14 points in 1:02.

The 'Birds caught two more breaks when a face mask and a personal foul penalty by Western Illinois moved the ball down to the Leatherneck 28, setting up a 20-yard Carroll field goal, putting the Redbirds up 20-10 with one second left in the half.

Cerone Colvin was the next Redbird to make a big play when he broke up Michna's pass on a key fourth down possession early in the third quarter.

But Western Illinois then made a big play on special teams when Hoffman was tackled at the Redbird 27 as he lined up to punt.

That play set up a four-yard scoring run by Attley Lawson, cutting the Illinois State lead to 20-17.

GAME 11 – PLASTER FIELD
ILLINOIS STATE 48, SMS 43
Redbirds Rally Past SMS in Wild Gridiron Win

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — With the comfort of a 21-0 lead quickly erased, the Illinois State football team, behind the legs of senior running back Sha-Ron Edwards, rallied for a 48-43 victory over SMS Saturday at the Plaster Sports Complex.

With the win the 'Birds improved to 5-6 overall and 2-4 in the Gateway Football Conference, while SMS fell to 4-6 and 1-5 respectively.

Edwards finished with a career-high 239 yards on 33 carries, and a pair of fourth-quarter stops by the Redbird defense keyed the victory.

On the opening drive of the game, the Redbird defense forced SMS to go three-and-out, while the offense only needed seven seconds to take a 7-0 lead when Mike Souza connected with Dwayne Smith on a 50-yard touchdown strike. That was Smith's fifth touchdown on the season.

Junior cornerback Sam Yeargin hauled in his second interception of the season to stall the second SMS drive of the game. It took the Redbirds six plays to go up 14-0 on a 5-yard touchdown run by Edwards with 9:57 remaining in the first quarter.

After another SMS stalled series, the 'Birds scored on their third straight drive to open the game. Edwards' scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from three yards out, to take a 21-0 lead with 6:25 left in the first quarter.

SMS broke into the scoring column at the 3:35 mark in the first quarter when A.J. Porter found Steven Rush on a 9-yard pass in the back of the end zone and trailed 21-7.

ISU responded by scoring on its fourth-straight drive when Edwards scored his third of the game on a 4-yard touchdown run. The Redbirds covered 72 yards in nine plays on the drive and took a 28-7 lead with 14:54 left in the second quarter.

Later in the quarter, following a Niall Campbell fumble recovery, freshman running back LaShawn Bullock pushed the Redbird lead to 35-7 with 6:30 left in the half on a 14-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing kick off, Rush sprinted 88 yards down the left sideline for the touchdown, cutting the ISU lead to 35-14.

At the 2:16 mark in the first half, Jon Scifres added a 40-yard field goal for SMS and trailed the 'Birds 35-17. Following a Souza interception by SMS' Anthony Sullivan, Porter found Kaya Farris in the middle of the end zone to reduce the ISU lead to 35-24 on 17 unanswered points that ended the first half of play.

ISU opened the second half with another scoring drive as Bullock added his second touchdown of the game on a 28-yard scamper off tackle at the 11:20 mark in the third quarter to push the advantage back to 42-24.

SMS responded once again when Porter tossed a 74-yard bomb to Rush at the 10:25 mark in the third quarter that reduced the ISU lead to 42-31. Porter and Rush connected again eight minutes later for 75 yards. SMS went for two on the PAT, but failed and closed the Redbird lead to 42-37 with 2:01 left in the third.

At the 13:22 mark in the fourth, Porter found Rush once again for an 80-yard touchdown pass. The 2-point conversion was no good, but the score gave the Bears the lead for the first time in the game at 43-42.

The lead didn't last long as Edwards sprinted 64-yards up the middle for his fourth touchdown of the game, putting the 'Birds back into the lead at 48-43.

Edwards' fourth touchdown tied the Illinois State record for the most rushing TDs in a Gateway game.

Senior Ray Robinson tied the school record for sacks in a season. Robinson had three on the day and now has 12 on the year tying John Kropke's mark set in 1986.

Souza finished the game passing for 148 yards on 11-for-23 passing with a touchdown and two interceptions. Smith led the Redbird receivers with 108 yards on seven catches.
