Ouarters anyone?

Since joining the Missouri Valley Conference the Redbirds own a 16-5 (.762) record in quarterfinal match-ups. The 16 ISU wins is the most quarterfinal victories by any league member since 1982 when ISU joined the conference.

SHOWING SOME SAVVY

The Valley is in its 15th season in St. Louis, including the past 10 years at Savvis Center. Three teams, including the Redbirds, have had the most success in the previous 10 years at Savvis. Illinois State, Creighton and SMS have all collected 13 tournament victories in Savvis to lead the conference in win totals at the facility.

Catch me if you can

Illinois State has had a history of success at the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament and no stat is more evident of that fact than its win total. The first league tournament was held in 1977 and the Redbirds joined the league in 1982. Despite giving other conference members a five-year head start, the Redbirds' 30 tournament wins is the most in the event history.

SIXTH SENSE

Even though this is the first time in the history of the Valley Tournament that Illinois State has been the sixth seed, let's get a sense of what the Redbirds are looking at. In the history of the tournament, the No. 6 seed owns a 2-28 record, including a 0-14 mark in games played at St. Louis.

ZO KNOWS POST-SEASON HONORS

On Tuesday, junior college transfer Lorenzo Gordon became the third player in Illinois State history to be named the Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year. He joins Tarise Bryson (1998-99) and the late Reggie Wilson (1990-91) as ISU's league newcomers of the year. Gordon ranks fourth in the league in scoring (16.6 points per game), and is also among the league's top rebounders (6.6 per game). His 3.0 offensive rebounds per game leads the conference. Gordon certainly made an impact in his first year with the Redbirds, who were picked 10th in the league's pre-season poll, yet finished sixth.

BACK-TO-BACKS

Since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, this year marks the first time for ISU to finish the regular season and open the conference tournament against the same opponent. In fact, since becoming a Division I program in 1970, the Redbirds have only played one opponent in back-to-back games until tonight. In 1979, the 'Birds lost at Hawai'i by five points to bounce back the next night with a nine-point win. Five days ago, Creighton won by five.

MEET ME IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louisans Lorenzo Gordon and Travis Wallace will have the opportunity to play in front of their home crowd this weekend at the league tournament. Gordon was part of three straight high school championships at Vashon High School, while Wallace spent his prep career at Jennings High School.

SPLITTING THE SPLITS

Since joining the Valley in 1982, the Redbirds have played 20 rubber matches at the league tournament. Another season series tiebreaker will be decided Saturday night between Illinois State and Creighton. In the 20 previous rubber games, ISU has a split record – 10-10. This is also the fifth time a series will be decided where the road team won on each other's court in the two previous meetings. ISU's record in those games is 2-2.

Prized Pupil Plank

Junior Neil Plank has already added a number of academic accolades to his resume' this year. On Wednesday, Plank became the 12th Redbird Academic All-American when he was named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® University Division Men's Basketball Second Team. Earlier in the season he was named to the District V Academic Team. The 2004 Valley Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection carries a 4.0 grade point average and is majoring in finance.

THE TALE OF TWO HALVES

ISU's six-game conference losing skid appears to be attributed to second-half defense. In the last seven games, including the non-conference win at UW-Green Bay, Illinois State opponents have shot a combined 98-for-179 from the field in the second half – or 54.7 percent.

THE DYNAMIC DUO

Newcomer of the year Lorenzo Gordon also claimed first team all-conference honors on Tuesday, while senior Trey Guidry earned second team recognition. Ranked as two of the top 10 players in the league, Gordon and Guidry, became the first Redbirds to have been placed on the first two teams since 1998 when Rico Hill garnered first team honors and Dan Muller was named to the second team.

THREE FOR A GRAND

At Bradley, both Gregg Alexander and Vince Greene joined ISU's 1,000-point club becoming the 37th and 38th member, respectively. Earlier this season at Creighton, Trey Guidry became the 36th member of the exclusive club, giving the Redbirds three new members this season. The last time three Redbirds scored their 1,000th career point in the same season was 1967-68 with Jerry McGreal, George Terry and Steve Arends.

GORDON AND THE 500

No, not a reference to Daytona or the Rainbow Warrior – instead it's referring to Lorenzo Gordon and scoring 500 points in a season. With 481 points scored heading into tonight's game, Gordon is trying to become the 12th player in Illinois State's Division I history to score 500 or more points in a season.

70 KNOWS SCORING

Lorenzo Gordon enters tonight's game averaging 16.6 points per game, which is fourth on the Missouri Valley Conference scoring list. Gordon is on pace to average the most points by a Redbird since Tarise Bryson logged 22.8 points per game during the 2000-01 season and is trying to become the first newcomer to lead the Redbirds in scoring since Baboucarr Bojang averaged 13.2 points per game in 2001-02.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET

Birds Fall to Creighton on Senior Night

NORMAL, III.. – Vince Greene led Illinois State with 14 points on Senior Night, however the Redbirds could not hold onto an early first half lead and fell 64-59 to the Creighton Bluejays Monday night at Redbird Arena

Illinois State ended the first half making only one of its last 10 field goals while Creighton ended the half on an 11-0 run.

The Redbirds (17-12, 8-10) opened the game with the hot hand as they hit 9-of-13 field goals to open the game and led by as many as eight points, including a 19-11 edge with 10:10 left in the first half. With 9:27 on the clock, Neil Plank sank a jumper to give ISU a 21-14 advantage, however the Redbirds would only score three more points the rest of the period. Trey Guidny's three-pointer at the 3:54 mark was the 'Birds' lone basket in their final 10 field goal attempts of the half. The Bluejays (20-10, 11-7) took advantage of ISU's cold shooting with a commanding 11-0 run to finish the half with a 28-24 lead.

The Redbirds shot 52 percent to the Bluejays' 48 percent in the second half, however the 'Birds would never take the lead. Illinois State came within one point at 32-31 after Greene hit a three-pointer with 14:54 left on the clock. The Bluejays would then go on a 14-6 run before Lorenzo Gordon hit two free throws at the 8:43 mark. A last minute basket by Greg Dilligard would bring the 'Birds to within five at 64-59 before time expired.

The Redbirds had four players score in double digits. Greene led with 14 points, Plank added 13, while Gregg Alexander and Dilligard scored 11 and 10 points, respectively. Creighton's only player in double digits was Nate Funk, who turned in a game-high 20 points. Overall, the 'Birds' 48 percent from the field out shot the Bluejays' 44 percent, however, Creighton was 10-20 from the three-point line while Illinois State was 7-16.

The "G-Force" has accounted for 71.4 percent of the Redbirds' minutes and 79.7 percent of the team's points.

THE THREE KING

With five treys at UW-Green Bay, senior Gregg Alexander claimed the top spot in the ISU record books for made three-point field goals in a career. Alexander, who now has 222 made threes, passed Tarise Bryson's 214.

DROPPING DIMES

Senior Vince Greene now has 411 assists in his career and stands in the No. 7 spot in the ISU record books. He needs 14 more dimes to move into the No. 6 position ahead of Richard Thomas (424). Greene is just the seventh Redbird to dish out 400 or more assists in a career.

DON'T SHOOT THE MESSENGER

In deciphering the data, it appears the Redbirds' success this season hinges on their shot. Not just one shot, but their field goal shooting as a whole. In the 17 victories, ISU is shooting 50.2 percent from the field, while only tickling the twine 40.2 percent of the time in the 12 losses. Also, the Redbirds are 15-2 when outshooting their opponent and are an impressive 16-5 when shooting over 40 percent from the floor.

THE 200 CLUB

At Bradley, Trey Guidry became just the fourth player in ISU history with 200 career triples. Guidry joins Gregg Alexander (222), Tarise Bryson (214) and Dan Muller (204) in ISU's 200 club with 205 career three-pointers.

171 GAMES WITH A TREY ON THE BOARD

ISU enters tonight's game with at least one made three in 171 straight games, thanks to seven 3-pointers against Creighton. The last time ISU didn't sink a trey was an 82-43 loss at Creighton on Dec. 12, 1999.

WE HAVE ANOTHER WINNER

With 17 wins on the season, the Redbirds are guaranteed their 30th winning season in the 35 years of being a Division I program. The 17 victories is the most by ISU since the 2001-02 season.

AT THE LINE, IT 'S EASY BEING GREENE

Senior Vince Greene already owns the school record for consecutive free throws with 57, which ended on Nov. 30, and now he has his sights on a Valley free throw percentage title. Greene currently ranks second in the conference at the foul line with his 92.0 percent accuracy in charity tosses, which also ranks No. 4 nationally. He is also first all time in career free throw percentage at Illinois State with an 89.9 free throw percentage for his career.

THAT 70'S SHOW

ISU has limited its foes to less than 70 points in 22 of its 29 games this season. In fact, the Redbirds had a stretch of 11 straight games keeping their opponents under 70 points, the longest string since 1993. There is also some significance when the 'Birds reach 70 points. When ISU scores 70 or more, the 'Birds are 13-1 this season.

THE COMEBACK KIDS

As Yogi Berra said "It's not over, until it's over" and the Redbirds have proved that this season. Five times the 'Birds have rallied from a double-digit deficit to claim victory. ISU has posted comebacks against Bradley (12), Marshall (11), Loyola (11), Indiana St. (10) and Creighton (10), despite being down by 10 or more points.

GAME 1

Newcomers Key ISU Victory Over Penn State

MILWAUKEE, Wis. – Junior college transfers Lorenzo Gordon and Nedu Onyeuku combined for 30 second half points and spurred Illinois State to a 82-73 victory over Penn State in the first round of the 2004 Black Coaches Association Classic at the Bradley Center Sunday night.

The win marked the first for the Redbirds over a Big Ten Conference foe since a 67-47 win at Northwestern on Dec. 18, 1996, giving the ISU program five victories over the Big Ten.

At one stretch, Gordon scored 18 straight points for ISU, including the first 14 of the second half that erased a 37-32 halftime deficit and forced a 46-46 tie with 13:48 left in the game. The hot hand transferred to Onyeuku, as he scored all 16 of his points in the next six minutes on a 20-12 ISU run which paved the way for a 66-58 Redbird lead with 7:03 remaining.

Senior sharpshooter Trey Guidry followed Onyeuku's scoring wave with 10 straight tallies of his own and pushed the ISU lead to 11 points, at 74-63, its largest of the game. Vince Greene capped off the night with four straight free throws pushing his school record to 48 straight makes from the line.

Gordon finished with a game-high 26 points on 10-for-15 shooting. He also added six rebounds in 33 minutes of action. Onyeuku's 16 points off the bench equaled Guidry's 16 point effort, while Greene collected a career-high eight rebounds to go along with his six assists.

Marquette Shuts Down Redbirds

MILWAUKEE, Wis. – Marquette held Illinois State to 20 percent shooting from the field, including 1-for-16 on threes, as the Golden Eagles handed the Redbirds a 60-32 non-conference loss in the semifinals of the 2004 Black Coaches Association Classic at the Bradley Center Monday night.

The Redbirds (1-1) fell behind early as Marquette opened with a 15-2 run to start the game and ISU never recovered. The 'Birds closed the gap to nine, but the lead ballooned to a 38-15 Golden Eagle advantage at the half.

The 32 points marked the second lowest game total for the Redbirds in the Division I era, topping only a 51-31 loss at Tulsa on Jan. 28, 1988. It was also the fewest points Marquette (2-0) had allowed since 1951.

Nedu Onyeuku led the Redbird scorers with eight points off the bench, but was 3-for-13 from the field. Lorenzo Gordon tossed in seven, while Greg Dilligard and Trey Guidry each scored six.

All-America point guard Travis Diener paved the way for the Golden Eagles with 16 points and five assists. Steve Novak was the only other player from Marquette in double figures. He scored 13

Redbirds Roll Over the Rebels

MILWAUKEE, Wis. – What a difference a day makes – especially when it comes to field goal shooting for the Illinois State basketball team. The Redbirds countered one of their worst shooting performances to shoot 59.5 percent from the field en route to a 70-52 victory over Mississippi in the third-place game of the 2004 Black Coaches Association Classic Tuesday night at the Bradley Center.

It looked like ISU's shooting woes were going to continue after missing its first two shots of the game, but then the Redbirds (2-1) hit five straight field goals that initiated a 25-10 run to open the game. Senior Trey Guidry poured in 13 first half points, including nine of three-pointers, while Lorenzo Gordon tacked on 10 first half tallies

Ole Miss (1-2) closed the gap to 29-21, but the Redbirds rallied with a 9-2 run and finished the half with a 38-23 lead. The hot shooting continued in the second half as the 'Birds pushed the lead to 24 points and was never threatened.

Guidry finished with a game-high 24 points on 9-for-12 shooting, including 4-of-5 on treys. Gordon tossed in his first career double-double with 22 points and 10 rebounds, while Greg Dilligard chipped in 11 boards and seven points.

Ole Miss was led by Bam Doyne's 11 points and he was the only Rebel in double figures. Illinois State finished the BCA Classic with a third-place title and wins over both the Big Ten and Southeastern Conference.

Second Half Run Gives 'Birds 82-47 Win

NORMAL, III. – A Gregg Alexander three-pointer ignited a 14-0 second half run that helped lead the Illinois State basketball team to an 82-47 victory over Truman State in the team's home opener Monday night.

The Redbirds (3-1) were led again by the stellar play of Lorenzo Gordon, who had 16 points and 5 rebounds, while Vince Greene chipped in 14 points and 5 assists.

The Redbirds jumped out to an early 8-0 lead thanks to a lay-up by Gordon and three-pointers from Trey Guidry (10 points) and Alexander (8 points).

Illinois State extended its lead to 14 at halftime, 33-19, with Gordon and Greene each chipping in 10 points apiece.

The Redbird lead extended even further in the second half. Neil Plank's three-pointer and Greg Dilligard's lay-up made the score 44-23, but Truman State answered with a 10-0 run of their own with Matt Brock and Austin Kirby each hitting a three during that stretch. The lead was cut to 44-33, until Alexander ended the run with his trev.

Alexander's basket started the 14-0 run for the 'Birds and they never looked back. Dilligard's dunk off his own steal ignited the Redbird Arena crowd and gave the home team a 58-33 advantage. Mike Oppland's 12 points led Truman State.

GAME 5

Birds Ground Skyhawks

NORMAL, III. – Trey Guidry matched a career high with 27 points and Lorenzo Gordon chipped in 23 as Illinois State pounded Tennessee-Martin 80-51 Saturday afternoon at Redbird Arena. Illinois State has now won three consecutive games for the first time since 2002 and is off to its first 4-1 start since 2000-01.

ISU enjoyed the friendly rims of Redbird Arena, as they shot 32-67 (.478) from the field, including a 12-24 showing from beyond the arc. The Redbirds also dished out over 20 assists for the second consecutive game.

Illinois State (4-1) came out strong as they rode the hot hands of Guidry and Gordon to a 17-4 lead to open the game. The duo each had seven of the Redbirds' first 17 points as they combined for 17 first half points.

The Skyhawks (1-2) would cut the deficit to five, 23-18, with just over eight minutes to go, however the Birds finished the first frame the way they started, closing out the half on a 9-0 run to take a 38-23 lead into the locker room.

Tenn.-Martin would get the lead down to 13 early in the second half, but a 13-3 Illinois State run capped by a Guidry three gave the 'Birds a 23-point advantage and closed the door on any thoughts of a Skyhawk comeback. The Redbirds would stretch their lead up to as many as 29 during the second half.

Redbirds Fight Flames to Finish, Falling 60-56

NORMAL, III. - Lorenzo Gordon scored in double figures for the fourth consecutive game, but Illinois State could not contain a hot shooting Illinois-Chicago squad, as the Redbirds dropped a heartbreaker, 60-56 Tuesday night at Redbird Arena.

The Redbirds held all-everything Flame Cedric Banks to only two points on 1-for-8 shooting, but UIC shot a blistering 51 percent from the field. Illinois State did not get the friendly rolls from the rim that they have grown accustomed to this season, as they only shot 39 percent from the field, marking only the second time this season Illinois State has shot under 45 percent.

In the first half, Illinois State (4-2) jumped out to a brief 4-2 lead following a Vince Greene three, but UIC (2-2) would counter with a 9-0 run to take a 11-4 lead, a lead which they would not give up during the first half. Seven was the biggest advantage of the half for the Flames, as they answered every time the 'Birds made a run.

Despite only playing 11 minutes, Gordon led the Redbirds with seven points in the first frame. Justin Bowen paced UIC with 10 in the first half and led three Flames in double figures for the game with 14 points

After tying the game 56-56 on his first charity shot, Greene missed the second free throw, leaving the game tied at 56 and ending his school record streak of consecutive free throws made at 57, just three shy of the Missouri Valley record.

With:19 left in the game, Jovan Stefanov scored on a driving lay-up to give UIC a 58-56 advantage. Illinois State would turn the ball over on their next possession, and after adding two free throws from Elliott Poole, the Flames wrapped up the 60-56 victory.

The Bears tied the game 36-36 on a three-pointer by Deke Thompson (15 points) with 16 minutes left. Illinois State held onto the lead however, with a jumper by Plank and lay-up by Trey Guidry (15 points), making the score 40-36.

With the Redbirds leading 48-44, Plank ignited the home crowd with a three-pointer at the 4:50 mark in the second half, giving his team a 51-44 lead. Vince Greene extended that lead on a three of his own, with the basket coming after Greene recorded only the second block of his career, this one coming against Thompson.

Thompson cut the Illinois State lead to two at 57-55 after his steal led to a fast-break lay-up. After Guidry, Greg Dilligard (8 points) and Gordon each split a pair of free throws to make the score 60-55, Tyler Chaney hit a three with six seconds remaining, cutting the lead to 60-58. But Guidry calmly sank his two free throws to extend the lead up to four. Chaney knocked down another three as time ran out for the game's final score.

Second-Half Drought, Cold Shooting Sinks Birds

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa – Illinois State couldn't overcome a 12-0 Northern Iowa run midway through the second half as the Redbirds dropped a 75-55 decision in Missouri Valley Conference action Monday night at the UNI-Dome.

With the Redbirds (9-4, 1-2) trailing 50-47 at the 10:22 mark, UNI used a 20-3 run, including a 12-0 spurt, to take control of the game. The Redbirds ended up shooting 23 percent from the floor in the second half, after shooting 53.8 percent in the first frame.

The two teams battled to a 36-36 tie in the first half thanks to a three-point buzzer beater by Trey Guidry. It was Guidry's third three-pointer of the half as he finished the first frame with 14 points to give him 1,000 points for his collegiate career. UNI led the entire first half until Guidry's heroics and led by as much as 23-15 with 10:13 left in the quarter.

Guidry paced the Redbirds with 20 points, while Vince Greene tossed in 11 points. Grant Stout led UNI with 18 points, including 10 in the second half, and collected a game-high 15 rebounds. Eric Coleman tossed in 13 points and Ben Jacobson added 12 for the Panthers.

GAME 14

Guidry Jumper, Gordon Block Equals ISU Victory

NORMAL, III. – Trey Guidry's jumper with seven seconds left and Lorenzo Gordon's blocked shot on Gabriel Moore with .2 seconds left was the difference in Illinois State's 62-61 victory over Indiana State Thursday night at Redbird Arena.

The Redbirds move to 10-4, 2-2 in the Missouri Valley Conference, and will face Evansville on the road Sunday, Jan. 9 for a 2:05 p.m. tip-off. Indiana State falls to 5-9, 0-3 in the Valley.

Vince Greene found Gordon underneath with 35 seconds left to give the 'Birds a 60-59 lead, but David Moss came right down the court and scored quickly to put the Sycamores up by one, 61-60. Guidry's jumper put the 'Birds up for good, leading to Gordon's block.

The game started out slow for the Redbirds however, as they failed to score in the first 4:57 until Khalif Ford's lay-up cut the Indiana State lead to 10-4. Illinois State started the half shooting 2-for-12 from the field.

The Sycamores led by as many as 10 points in the first half after Tyson Schnitker's three-pointer made the score 23-13. The 'Birds responded by making 12 of their last 15 shots, with Neil Plank scoring seven points down the stretch. Schnitker's three with under 30 seconds left put Indiana State up 35-32 at halftime.

Illinois State took its first lead of the game at the 18:08 mark of the second half when Gregg Alexander hit a three to put the 'Birds up 37-36.

Both teams went through 12 lead changes in the second half before Guidry's basket solidified the final score.

Gordon led all Redbird scorers with 20 points, while Neil Plank had 17 respectively. Moss led Indiana State with 22 points.

Redbirds Fall Short at Evansville 69-61

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – Illinois State's Lorenzo Gordon tossed in his seventh 20-point game of the season with 24 tallies and grabbed a career-best 14 rebounds, but it wasn't enough to hand Evansville its first home loss of the season as the Redbirds fell 69-61, in Missouri Valley Conference action Sunday afternoon at Roberts Stadium.

With the game knotted at 49-49 and 7:15 on the clock, the Purple Aces went on a 14-5 run to take a commanding 63-54 lead with 1:42 left in the game. The Aces closed out the game with a 6-for-9 effort from the foul line to seal the win. The Redbirds and Aces battled head-to-head throughout the first 13 minutes of the second half with eight lead changes and four ties.

Evansville opened the game with a 4-0 lead, converting its first two field goals, but the Redbirds took the lead at 7-6 at the 16:29 mark on a short jumper by Vince Greene. The 'Birds took their largest lead of the half at the 13:31 mark when Lorenzo Gordon converted a pair of free throws to give ISU an 11-8 advantage. Evansville responded with a 15-7 run and took its largest lead at 23-18 with 5:13 left in the half.

ISU claimed the lead again at the 3:40 mark when Trey Guidry's second three-point basket of the game and 12th point of the half capped off an 8-2 spurt. But Guidry's basket ended up being the final points of the half for the 'Birds, who had four missed shots and three turnovers in the final three and half minutes, as Evansville took a 30-26 lead into intermission.

Gordon's 24 points was a game high, while Guidry tossed in 19 to round out the double-digit scorers. Andre Burton led the Aces with 17 points, Matt Webster and Bradley Strickland each tossed in 14 and Lucious Wagner chipped in 13.

Gordon's 21 Points Leads 'Birds Over Drake

NORMAL, III. – Lorenzo Gordon and Gregg Alexander were two of five Redbirds in double figures Saturday, leading Illinois State to a 74-61 victory over Drake Saturday at Redbird Arena.

The Redbirds moved to 11-5 on the season, 3-3 in the Missouri Valley Conference, while Drake fell to 6-8, 2-4 in the Valley.

The game started out sluggish for both teams, as each went through a three-minute stretch in the first half where neither made a shot. Alexander broke the drought with a three-pointer that cut the Drake lead to 14-12.

Alexander was the difference in the first half as the senior finished 5-8 on threes for 15 points, giving the Redbirds a 35-31 lead at intermission.

Illinois State extended its lead in the second half, thanks to hot shooting by Vince Greene and aggressive play inside by Gordon. Greene knocked down two straight threes, while Gordon scored four straight on two free throws and a fast-break lay-up to put the Redbirds up 47-35.

Greg Dilligard ignited the home crowd with a thunderous dunk along the baseline with 5:20 left, giving the Redbirds their biggest lead of the night, 68-49.

Gordon's 14 second half points led the 'Birds and gave the team the offensive surge to pull ahead after halftime.

Illinois State had five players in double figures with Gordon (21), Alexander (15), Trey Guidry (10), Greene (12) and Neil Plank (12) all chipping in for the Redbirds.

GAME 18 Guidry Guns Redbirds Past Creighton

OMAHA, Neb. - Senior sharpshooter Trey Guidry poured in a game and career-high 30 points, including the three-pointer that put the game into overtime, to give Illinois State its first back-to-back road victories since the 2001-02 season with an 82-77 overtime win at Creighton Saturday night at the Qwest Center OMAHA™.

With the win the Redbirds moved into third place in the Missouri Valley Conference race by lifting their record to 13-5 overall and 5-3 in the league. Creighton fell to 12-7 and 4-4, respectively.

The Blueiavs looked to be in control with a 68-62 lead and 1:58 left in regulation, but a missed free throw by Tyler McKinney and a turnover by Nate Funk opened the door for Guidry's heroics. With four seconds left in the second half, Guidry swished a trey from the left side of the arch to knot the game at 68-68. McKinney heaved a three-point attempt at the buzzer, but it bounced off the front of the rim and pushed the game into overtime.

In the extra period with the game tied 71-71 and 2:45 on the clock, the Redbirds took control with a pair of baskets by Lorenzo Gordon and Guidry. Vince Greene, for the second straight game, saved the win with a 6-for-6 effort from the line.

Guidry and Funk traded baskets in the first half as Guidy finished the first frame with 18 points and Funk posted 14. Creighton jumped out to a 5-0 lead to open the game and led by as much as 10 points at 23-13. The Redbirds responded with a 13-7 run with Guidry scoring seven in the spurt to close the gap to 30-26. The Jays led the entire half with a 37-32 lead at the intermission.

Guidry's 30 points was the most by a Redbird since Tarise Bryson fired 38 in the 2001 National Invitation Tournament game at Purdue. His 30 tallies also marked a Qwest Center record and gave him 1,000 career points in a Redbird uniform. Gordon posted his fourth double-double of the season with 19 points and 11 rebounds, while Greene finished with 10 points.

Hot Shooting Gives Birds 77-58 Win

NORMAL, III. - Trey Guidry led all scorers with 25 points Tuesday to lead Illinois State to a 77-58 victory over Evansville in front of 5.709 fans at Redbird Arena.

The Redbirds moved to 14-5, 6-3 in the Missouri Valley Conference, while the Purple Aces fell to 10-8, 4-6 in the Valley.

Illinois State took its first lead at the 8:05 mark when Guidry's jumper put the 'Birds up 11-10. Burton's lav-up as time expired cut into the Illinois State lead as the 'Birds held a 27-26 advantage at

The 'Birds extended their halftime lead thanks to the inside play of Lorenzo Gordon and outside shooting of Guidry. Gordon scored inside on Illinois State's first two possessions and Guidry knocked down two three pointers as the 'Birds hit six of their first eight second half shots. Guidry's second three-pointer gave his team a 42-32 lead.

Later in the half, Nedu Onyeuku fed Greg Dilligard whose dunk gave the 'Birds a 54-41 lead. On the ensuing possession, Evansville's Bradley Strickland was called for charging, fouling out with 7:51 remaining. The Evansville bench was then charged with a technical foul. Vince Greene calmly sank the two free throws and Guidry nailed a three to give the 'Birds their biggest lead of the night, 59-41.

Gordon and Alexander were the second leading scorers for the Redbirds as each chipped in 11 points apiece. Alexander led the way with seven rebounds. Lucious Wagner led the Purple Aces with 14 points respectively.

WICHITA, Kan. - Wichita State, the league's first-place team, used runs of 14-7 and 9-0 to erase a seven-point halftime deficit and claim a 78-72 victory over upset-minded Illinois State in front of a sold out Charles Koch Arena Saturday night in Missouri Valley Conference action.

The Shockers (16-2 overall and 9-1 in the Valley) used a 14-7 run to open the second half and force a 42-42 tie with 15:09 remaining. The two teams exchanged leads and baskets for the next six minutes before WSU rode a 9-0 run during a two-minute span to take control of the game at 60-51, a lead it would never relinquish with 7:20 remaining. The Redbirds (14-6, 6-4) closed the gap to five points at 60-55, but could never get any closer.

The Redbirds jumped out with a quick start, taking a 13-5 lead at the 14:32 mark after a 9-0 ISU run, including four points by Lorenzo Gordon. The 'Birds pushed the lead to 12 points at the 8:45 mark when Gregg Alexander hit his first of two first half threepointers to push the ISU lead to 21-9. #### Plank Tip-in Steals a Redbird Victory

WICHITA, Kan. – Illinois State's Neil Plank tipped in a missed jumper by Vince Greene with three seconds left in the game to give the Redbirds a 59-58 Missouri Valley Conference victory over Drake at the Knapp Center Tuesday night.

The road win was the third for the 'Birds in the last four tries and lifted their record to 15-6 overall and 7-4 in the Valley. Drake fell to 7-12 and 3-8, respectively.

Lorenzo Gordon, who was held scoreless in the first half, scored all 14 of Illinois State's first second-half points. Gordon finished with a game-high 19 tallies, all in the second frame. The Redbirds trailed by as much as eight points in the second half, including a 58-51 deficit with 1:48 left on the clock. A pair of Vince Greene threes following Drake turnovers closed the gap to 58-57, setting the stage for Plank's heroics.

Drake's David Bancroft missed the front end of a 1-and-1 from the foul line giving the Redbirds possession with 29 seconds remaining. After a Drake deflection forced the ball out of bounds with 14 seconds left, Greene penetrated the lane, drawing three defenders, but his shot fell short. Plank was in position for the carom and bounced it off the glass for ISU's first lead since the 15:03 mark in the first half

Both offenses started cold with the Redbirds taking a 6-2 lead five minutes into the game. The Bulldogs responded with an 8-0 run, including four points by Aloiu Keita to take a 10-6 egde. Plank's three-point play at the 4:47 mark knotted the game at 20-20. Plank and Drake's Klayton Korver traded treys to tie the game again at 23-23.

Greene finished with 14 points, while Gordon added nine boards to his 19 points. Drake had three players in double digits led by Korver with 14 points.

Greene's Free Throws Ignite 'Birds Over Bradley

NORMAL, III. – Vince Greene finished 6-of-6 from the free throw line in the final 1:09 against Bradley on Saturday as the Redbirds recorded a 69-62 victory over the Braves in front of 10.200 at Redbird Arena.

The Redbirds took the first lead of the game on a Gregg Alexander three-pointer, but Bradley's inside game dominated the 'Birds early on. The Braves scored 22 of their 30 first half points inside the paint, with Patrick O'Bryant (6 points) giving his team the early momentum with the first two baskets.

Bradley's lead rose to 17-5 with 10:07 left on the strength of a 9-0 run. Trey Guidry (24 points) stopped the bleeding with a three-pointer, stopping the Redbird scoring drought.

A Guidry three-pointer at the top of the key gave the Redbirds their first lead since early in the game, 32-30. The Redbird lead moved to five at 46-41, thanks to a 12-5 rebounding advantage in the first nine minutes of the second half.

Bradley came back to tie the score at 48-48 thanks to a three by Daniel Ruffin and a hook shot by O'Bryant. Two Alexander (7 points) free throws and a lay-up by Guidry after a Greg Dilligard steal gave the Redbirds back the lead, 52-48. Then, a technical foul by Bradley's Tony Bennett resulted in two free throws by Greene.

Greene's (20 points) jumper put the Redbirds up 56-48, but the Braves were ignited by the play of Marcellus Sommerville, who sparked a 9-2 run thanks to a rebound basket and three-pointer, cutting the Illinois State lead to 58-57.

A lay-up by Gordon (6 points), followed by a missed jumper by Sommerville (23 points), gave the Redbirds the lead and the momentum, which they would never relinquish. Sommerville also missed 2-of-3 free throws after Guidry fouled him behind the three-point line.

Birds Fall to League-Leading Shockers, 76-62

NORMAL, III. – Despite a fighting effort the Illinois State men's basketball team fell to Wichita State 76-62 in a Thursday evening Missouri Valley Conference contest at Redbird Arena.

Lorenzo Gordon led all scorers with 20 points, one of only two Redbirds to finish in doubles figures as Vince Greene contributed 11.

Both teams had a hard time scoring in the first 10 minutes of the game, as defensive stops were rampant on both ends of the court. Wichita State (18-3, 11-2) drained the first basket of the game, before a Greg Dilligard slam dunk on an assist by Trey Guidry put the 'Birds on the board and tied the game for the only time in the first half, 2-2.

The Shockers then took control, leading by as many as 10 at the 10:55 mark of the first after a Rob Kampman three-pointer gave Wichita State an 18-8 edge. Gordon sparked a Redbird rally with a three-point play, which was followed by a Shocker turnover, and then a six-foot jumper off the glass by Guidry to pull Illinois State (16-7, 8-5) to 20-16 with 2:54 remaining.

Wichita State went on a five-point run in 2:00 to make the score 25-17, before the 'Birds shut them down defensively. Field goals by Dilligard (8 points) and Greene, followed by a Gregg Alexander (nine points) three-pointer brought the 'Birds within one point with 1:55 remaining in the first half. A missed shot by Jamar Howard (14 points) gave Illinois State the ball with 52 seconds on the clock, which led to a Lorenzo Gordon jumper, giving the 'Birds a 26-25 lead they would carry into halftime.

Paul Miller ended the Wichita State scoring drought from the first half at 4:22 with a jumper at the 19:32 mark of the second half to make the score 28-27. The Shockers proceeded to take the reins of the game, mounting a 14-0 run to dominate the second half and seal the win.

GAME 24

Redbirds Can't Get Revenge on Panthers

NORMAL, III. - Trey Guidry led three Redbirds in double figures with 20 points, but the Illinois State Redbirds missed a shot at the buzzer and fell to the visiting Northern Iowa Panthers by a score of 65-64. The tightly contested game never saw either team hold an advantage of more than six points and the lead changed

With six minutes left in the first frame and the Redbirds trailing 20-16, a strong move to the basket by Lorenzo Gordon started a 12-2 Redbird run that ended with five straight points from Gregg Alexander, giving the Redbirds the lead at 28-22. The Panthers finished the half strong, going to the locker room down a bucket at 29-27. Gordon led all scorers in the first half with 10 points while UNI was paced by Erik Crawford's nine.

Gregg Alexander hit a three early in the second half to push the Redbird lead to 33-29. However, after being shut out in the first half, Panther forward Erik Coleman got involved in the offense, as he scored three quick baskets in the post to give the Panthers the lead once again at 39-37.

Despite the Panthers shooting barrage, the Redbirds kept the score close until the two-minute mark when Gordon took the lead back at 62-61. UNI quickly regained the lead after a lay-up by John Little, but Guidry answered back with two free throws to give ISU a 64-63 lead with 32 seconds remaining. The Panthers got the ball back with no shot clock and attempted to put the game away. Ben Jacobson drove to the bucket and was fouled by Guidry with 11 seconds left. Jacobson made both to increase his scoring total to 20 and give the Panthers the lead back at 65-64. The Redbirds came down the court with one last shot to win the game, however Gregg Alexander's jumper from the corner fell short and the Panthers prevailed.

Birds Can't Take Advantage of Home Court

NORMAL, III. - Illinois State placed three players in double figures but it wasn't enough to top league-leading Southern Illinois on Wednesday night as the Redbirds fell 66-59 at Redbird Arena in front of 7 547

Illinois State (16-9, 8-7) was led by Lorenzo Gordon, who had 13 points and seven rebounds. Also in double figures for ISU were Gregg Alexander, who had 12 points and a team high nine rebounds, and Trey Guidry, who scored 11. Southern Illinois was paced by Jamaal Tatum, who led all scorers with 15. Darren Brooks had a double-double for the Salukis with 13 points and 10 rebounds

Illinois State only had 11 turnovers to SIU's eight, however the Salukis did a better job taking advantage of the miscues as they held a 17-2 advantage in points off turnovers.

Southern Illinois (21-6, 12-3) opened the first half strong, taking a 9-4 lead after the first four minutes of play. The Salukis would stretch the lead to six after a Tatum three with 15:00 to go, giving SIU a 12-6 advantage. The 'Birds would keep it close for the next few minutes as the two teams traded buckets.

Redbird head coach Porter Moser was assessed a technical foul at the 10:12 mark, and Stetson Harriston made both free throws to push the Saluki lead to six again at 18-12. Following the technical, the Redbirds came back energized as they went on a 10-0 run, highlighted by a Greg Dilligard tip-dunk to give ISU its first lead with 8:12 to go at 19-18. Guidry would cap the run off with a three on the next possession, giving ISU a four-point advantage at 22-18, its biggest lead of the game.

The Redbirds struggled the last seven minutes of the half though, as SIU outscored Illinois State 12-2 to take a 30-24 lead into the locker room.

Alexander's Record Threes Lift Birds

GREEN BAY, Wis. - Senior Gregg Alexander buried five threes and claimed the Illinois State career three-point record, while Lorenzo Gordon led all scorers with 22 points as the Redbirds downed Wisconsin-Green Bay 79-69, for their third ESPN Bracket Buster win in three tries Saturday night at the Resch Center.

Illinois State opened the scoring with two straight buckets by Gordon to take a 4-0 lead. Gordon scored eight of ISU's first 10 points as the Redbirds led the entire first frame. An 8-2 Redbird run pushed the lead to 16-8 with 11:41 left in the half. ISU took it's largest lead of the half at 26-16 with 5:12 remaining, but settled for a 32-25 edge at the intermission. The 'Birds outrebounded UWGB 17-8 in the initial stanza, while shooting 58.3 percent from the field in the game's first 20 minutes.

The Redbirds opened the second half with a 14-4 run, thanks to a pair of Alexander threes, to take a 46-29 edge, their largest lead of the game. The second trey gave Alexander sole ownership of Illinois State's career three-point record passing Tarise Bryson. Alexander ended the game with 216 career threes. The Phoenix responded with a 13-2 run and closed the gap to six points at 48-42 with 11:11 left on the clock

UWGB closed the gap to five points twice, but that was as close as the Phoenix would get. ISU shot a season-best 61.4 percent from the field to keep UWGB at bay.

Gordon posted 22 points on 7-for-13 shooting and added nine rebounds. Alexander finished with 17 points, while Vince Greene chipped in 14 tallies and eight assists. Javier Mendiburu led the Phoenix with 19 points and Benito Flores and Matt Rohde tossed in 17 and 16 points, respectively.

Redbirds Falls to Braves in 100th Game of Series

PEORIA, III. – In the 100th game of the Illinois State-Bradley series, the Redbirds scored the first bucket of the game, but it was all Bradley after that as the 'Birds fell to the Braves, 77-61, in front of 10,406 fans at Carver Arena in Peoria, III.

The Redbirds (17-10, 8-8) hung with Bradley (13-12, 6-10) until the 8:50 mark in the first half. The Braves then went on a 20-5 run that lasted until just before halftime, heading into the locker room with a 38-21 advantage at intermission.

It didn't help that Illinois State's shots weren't falling either. In the first half, the 'Birds shot just 31 percent from the field, including a two-for-ten effort from beyond the arc. ISU shot just 38 percent from the field for the game.

The Redbirds started the second half on an 8-2 run, cutting the Bradley lead to 11, but that was the closest as it would get. At one point in the second half, the Braves' lead ballooned to 21 points.

O'Bryant led all scorers with 20 points and finished with nine caroms. Tony Bennett had 19 points, six rebounds and six steals, while Marcellus Sommerville finished with 11 points and six rebounds.

One of the few bright spots in the game for Illinois State was when seniors Gregg Alexander and Vince Greene joined Illinois State's 1,000-point club. Alexander joined the elite on a three pointer with 4:59 left in the first half; while Greene scored seven points in the first five minutes of the second period to earn the 1,000th point of his career.

Greene led the Redbirds with 17 points, while Guidry contributed 14. Lorenzo Gordon just missed recording a double-double with ten points and nine rebounds.

Bears Fire Past ISU Down the Stretch

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Junior Lorenzo Gordon's jumper brought the Illinois State men's basketball to within two points at 68-66, with 2:16 left on the clock, but that was the last time the Redbirds would score as they dropped a 77-66 decision to SMS at the Hammons Student Center, Saturday night.

With ISU's loss and Northern Iowa's win over Bradley 81-72, in Cedar Falls, Iowa, the Redbirds secured the No. 6 seed for the 2005 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament. The 'Birds fell to 17-11 overall and 8-9 in the league, while the Bears improved to 15-11 and 9-8, respectively.

After a tied first half of play, both teams came out firing in the second stanza. SMS shot 75 percent (15-for-20) in the second period, while ISU fired a 65.2 percent clip (15-of-23) from the field. With the game tied 51-51 and 8:44 on the clock, SMS used a 9-3 run to get some space. The 'Birds got back to within two points at 68-66, but failed to score in the game's final two minutes.

SMS jumped out to a 4-0 lead, but the Redbirds scored 11 straight points while the Bears were held scoreless for 7:37 on the clock. Trey Guidry, who was scratched from the starting line-up, scored five of the Redbirds' 11-point run to take an 11-4 lead with 11:59 left in the half.

The Bears responded with a 15-5 run of their own to take a 19-15 lead with 5:09 on the clock, but ISU scored the next four points to force a 19-19 tie. SMS took one final lead of the first half, but Neil Plank's tip-in of a Levi Dyer missed three-pointer tied the game at 25-25 heading into the break.

Vince Greene and Guidry led the Redbirds with 16 points apiece and Gordon added 11. SMS had five players in double figures led by Nathan Bilyeu with 15.

Birds Fall to Creighton on Senior Night

NORMAL, III.. – Vince Greene led Illinois State with 14 points on Senior Night, however the Redbirds could not hold onto an early first half lead and fell 64-59 to the Creighton Bluejays Monday night at Redbird Arena.

Illinois State ended the first half making only one of its last 10 field goals while Creighton ended the half on an 11-0 run.

The Redbirds (17-12, 8-10) opened the game with the hot hand as they hit 9-of-13 field goals to open the game and led by as many as eight points, including a 19-11 edge with 10:10 left in the first half. With 9:27 on the clock, Neil Plank sank a jumper to give ISU a 21-14 advantage, however the Redbirds would only score three more points the rest of the period. Trey Guidry's three-pointer at the 3:54 mark was the 'Birds' lone basket in their final 10 field goal attempts of the half. The Bluejays (20-10, 11-7) took advantage of tISU's cold shooting with a commanding 11-0 run to finish the half with a 28-24 lead.

The Redbirds shot 52 percent to the Bluejays' 48 percent in the second half, however the 'Birds would never take the lead. Illinois State came within one point at 32-31 after Greene hit a three-pointer with 14:54 left on the clock. The Bluejays would then go on a 14-6 run before Lorenzo Gordon hit two free throws at the 8:43 mark. A last minute basket by Greg Dilligard would bring the 'Birds to within five at 64-59 before time expired.

The Redbirds had four players score in double digits. Greene led with 14 points, Plank added 13, while Gregg Alexander and Dilligard scored 11 and 10 points, respectively. Creighton's only player in double digits was Nate Funk, who turned in a game-high 20 points. Overall, the 'Birds' 48 percent from the field out shot the Bluejays' 44 percent, however, Creighton was 10-20 from the three-point line while Illinois State was 7-16.
