Annette Chapman
NRA Instructor

Meet your instructor:

I took my first firearm safety class when I was seven years old and had my first opportunity to compete on a state level later that year. Raised in a family of hunting enthusiasts, I learned safety first as well as basic marksmanship. I enjoyed hunting with my dad when I was a child and now as an adult, one of my favorite pastimes is target shooting at the range with my friends and family.

I am a proud member of the National Rifle Association, Illinois State Rifle Association, Women's Tactical Association, and A Girl and A Gun Women's Shooting League. A certified NRA Instructor, I am excited to be sharing my affinity for firearms through teaching the NRA Basic Pistol Shooting courses. While being a stickler for safety, I am able to keep things casual and fun while we learn.
