Adult Programs

November 6, 5:00PM. Dinner at the Palms Grill with Terri Ryburn. Terri will share childhood stories from her nearly completed memoir No Crybabies Allowed. Terri is a writer, actor, playwright, and stand-up comedian who just completed a screenplay based on her family's 1953 trip along Route 66 to California. Reservations required. Call 217-648-5077. Cost of dinner. Sponsored by the A-Team

November 9, 6:30PM. Noonday Jewelry Trunk Show. Looking for Christmas presents or a bauble for yourself? Join us for refreshments and a trunk show presented by Noonday Collections. Noonday partners with female artisan entrepreneurs in the developing world to help them gain access to global markets. Come hang out with friends, hear the Noonday story and shop the beautiful collection. Registration required. Call 217-648-2112 to sign up. No purchase necessary. FREE

November 10, 10:00AM. ArtPlay. Join us at the Library for an adult art project with Mary Sunday. Participants will use a variety of media, including watercolor, pencil, pastels, and others, to create beautiful cards for the holidays and other occasions. We will also make "jewels" for the Library's Christmas tree (theme this year: the jewels in our crown). Registration required. Call 217-648-2112 to sign up. Cost: $10.00 (unless you have already bought a package subscription).

November 12, 10:00AM. Coffee, Tea and Rhyme. Come for a casual get-together by the fire and enjoy a cup of coffee or tea while Cathy takes you on a journey through some of Shakespeare's "Dark Lady" sonnets. Afraid of poetry? Don't be! Come discover these poetic "jewels" and explore this mysterious woman who inspired some of the world's most beautiful love poetry. No registration required. FREE.

November 13, 5:00PM. Dinner at the Palms Grill: Lincoln in Atlanta. Guy Fraker, a past president of the McLean County Bar Association will discuss the local story of Lincoln in our town and its meaning for the nation. Reservations required. Call 217-648-5077. Cost of dinner. Sponsored by the A-Team

November 17, 8:30AM. This Golden Age: Antique Jewelry. Long-time antique jewelry collector Nancy Schaub will be here to show us part of her collection and share her stories about special pieces, humorous encounters, and her unique obsession with old jewels. Enjoy coffee and pastries followed by the presentation. Sponsored by Quiram Peasley Funeral Home. FREE

November 18, 9:00AM. This Golden Age: Pharmacy! Join us for refreshments and hear about the new pharmacy that is coming to Atlanta. FREE Sponsored by Quiram Peasley Funeral Home

November 21, 7:00PM. A Night at the Museum: All the Jewels in our Crown. Lamda Chi Music Fraternity, a Lincoln College instrumental/vocal ensemble will perform upstairs in the Museum in a comfortable club-like setting. The program features musical "jewels" by popular American songwriters, such as Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Rogers & Hammerstein, Stephen Foster and more. Join us for dinner at the Palms Grill beforehand and receive a free ticket to the show! Call 217-648-5077 to sign up. Entrance without dinner ticket: $8.00. Sponsored by Atlanta National Bank

November 30, 6:30PM. Worldviews Book Group discusses Anthony Doerr's overnight sensation All the Light We Cannot See. A blind French girl...a German radio technician assigned to track the resistance to the Third Reich...a stunning and apparently dangerous jewel that dates back centuries. Come find out what happens when their paths converge. Books are available at the Library. Call 217-648-2112 for more information or to sign up. Sponsored by the Atlanta Betterment Fund. FREE
