

Lincoln Police Department

Monthly Report

October 2018

Report Summary

Property crimes in regards to theft saw a spike over the previous month, however we had a lower amount over the previous year at this time. Lincoln Police responded to 1,107 incidents for the month and 110 criminal case reports were written for the month.

Of the 45 arrests for the month there were several property crime and DUI arrests by the Lincoln Police. Detectives continued investigations on 32 cases including participating in CIEG task force operations.

There were 32 crashes the Lincoln Police Department responded to for the month. Turning crashes were some of the top causes, which taking a few extra seconds at intersections will help curb many of these crashes.

Through DARE, Officer Christy Fruge attended training in Virginia to be a DARE Mentor for all of the United States. She is now one of 60 officers trained to teach the DARE program to officers new to the program.

Officer Sullivan and K9 Ace searched 1 area that resulted in 3 items of drug paraphernalia that resulted in an arrest. K9 Ace also successfully tracked a suspect that led to an arrest.

School Resource Officer Tim Butterfield responded to 120 incidents at LCHS and was training on a new camera system implemented by LCHS for school safety and security. Officer Butterfield also conducts required school safety drills for Lincoln schools.

Respectfully submitted,
Paul Adams
