RE: Investigation

On Thursday, June 17th, at approximately 6:15 p.m., a Logan County Sheriff's unit observed a silver Ford Mustang convertible speeding southbound in the 1300 block of State Route 121. As the deputy turned around attempting to catch up to the vehicle, the suspect vehicle, while traveling at a high rate of speed in an unsafe manner, attempted to pass another vehicle resulting in the suspect vehicle crashing. Two subjects were seen running from the vehicle by witnesses. One subject was apprehended while another was not located after an extensive search. This is an ongoing investigation by the Logan County Sheriff's Office. The Logan County Sheriff's Office would like to thank the Lincoln Police Department and Illinois State Police for their assistance in this incident.
