

Alcohol Awareness Tulips

Alcohol Awareness month spotlights underage drinking and the destructive effects it can have on the nation's youth. Underage drinking is a complex problem, one that can only be solved through a sustained and cooperative effort between parents, schools, community leaders, interested organizations, individuals, and America's youth.

The Red Ribbon Campaign is the oldest and largest drug prevention program in the nation. During Red Ribbon Week members of these groups participated in The Red Ribbon campaign (October 23-31, 2006) by planting "promise" tulip bulbs in the city of Lincoln.

Look for the arrival of these RED tulips that send the message of alcohol awareness throughout the community!
