

2015 Relay for Life

Other activities fill the day

By Lisa Ramlow & Nila Smith

The Relay for Life co-chairs for this year were Tonita Reifsteck and Devon Vannoy. They had a team of volunteers that kept everything moving along throughout the day according to plan.

The committee does a lot of behind the scenes work in organizing the event, seeking donations for the silent auction, live auction, and for the roses handed out to the survivors.

Throughout the evening, there were other great events going on during the laps. Walkers were given the opportunity to create a Relay for Life Key Chain by collecting beads at the end of their lap.

The keychain project was led by Deb Cooley, who was also overseeing the silent auction and served as cashier for the live auction. Dennis Cooley and the Cooley family also worked with the live auction.

There was a silent auction with a huge variety of offerings. Darlene Begolka was on hand with her Tupperware products. With each purchase, a donation was made to Relay for Life.

Entertainment throughout the day included Audra's School of Dance, and vocalist and guitarist Dan McLaughlin with a special appearance by his grandson. Other entertainment on the schedule included Margaret Rubenacker, Line Dancing with Tabitha, and Zumba by Janell.

There was also plenty of time for visiting with old friends and making new ones, as many of the teams had tents set up with activities going on inside, or food being offered as part of their fundraising effort for Relay for Life.
