

Fall Festival Season in Logan County

*Mount Pulaski Fall Festival
Friday night fun at the Festival*

By Teena Lowery

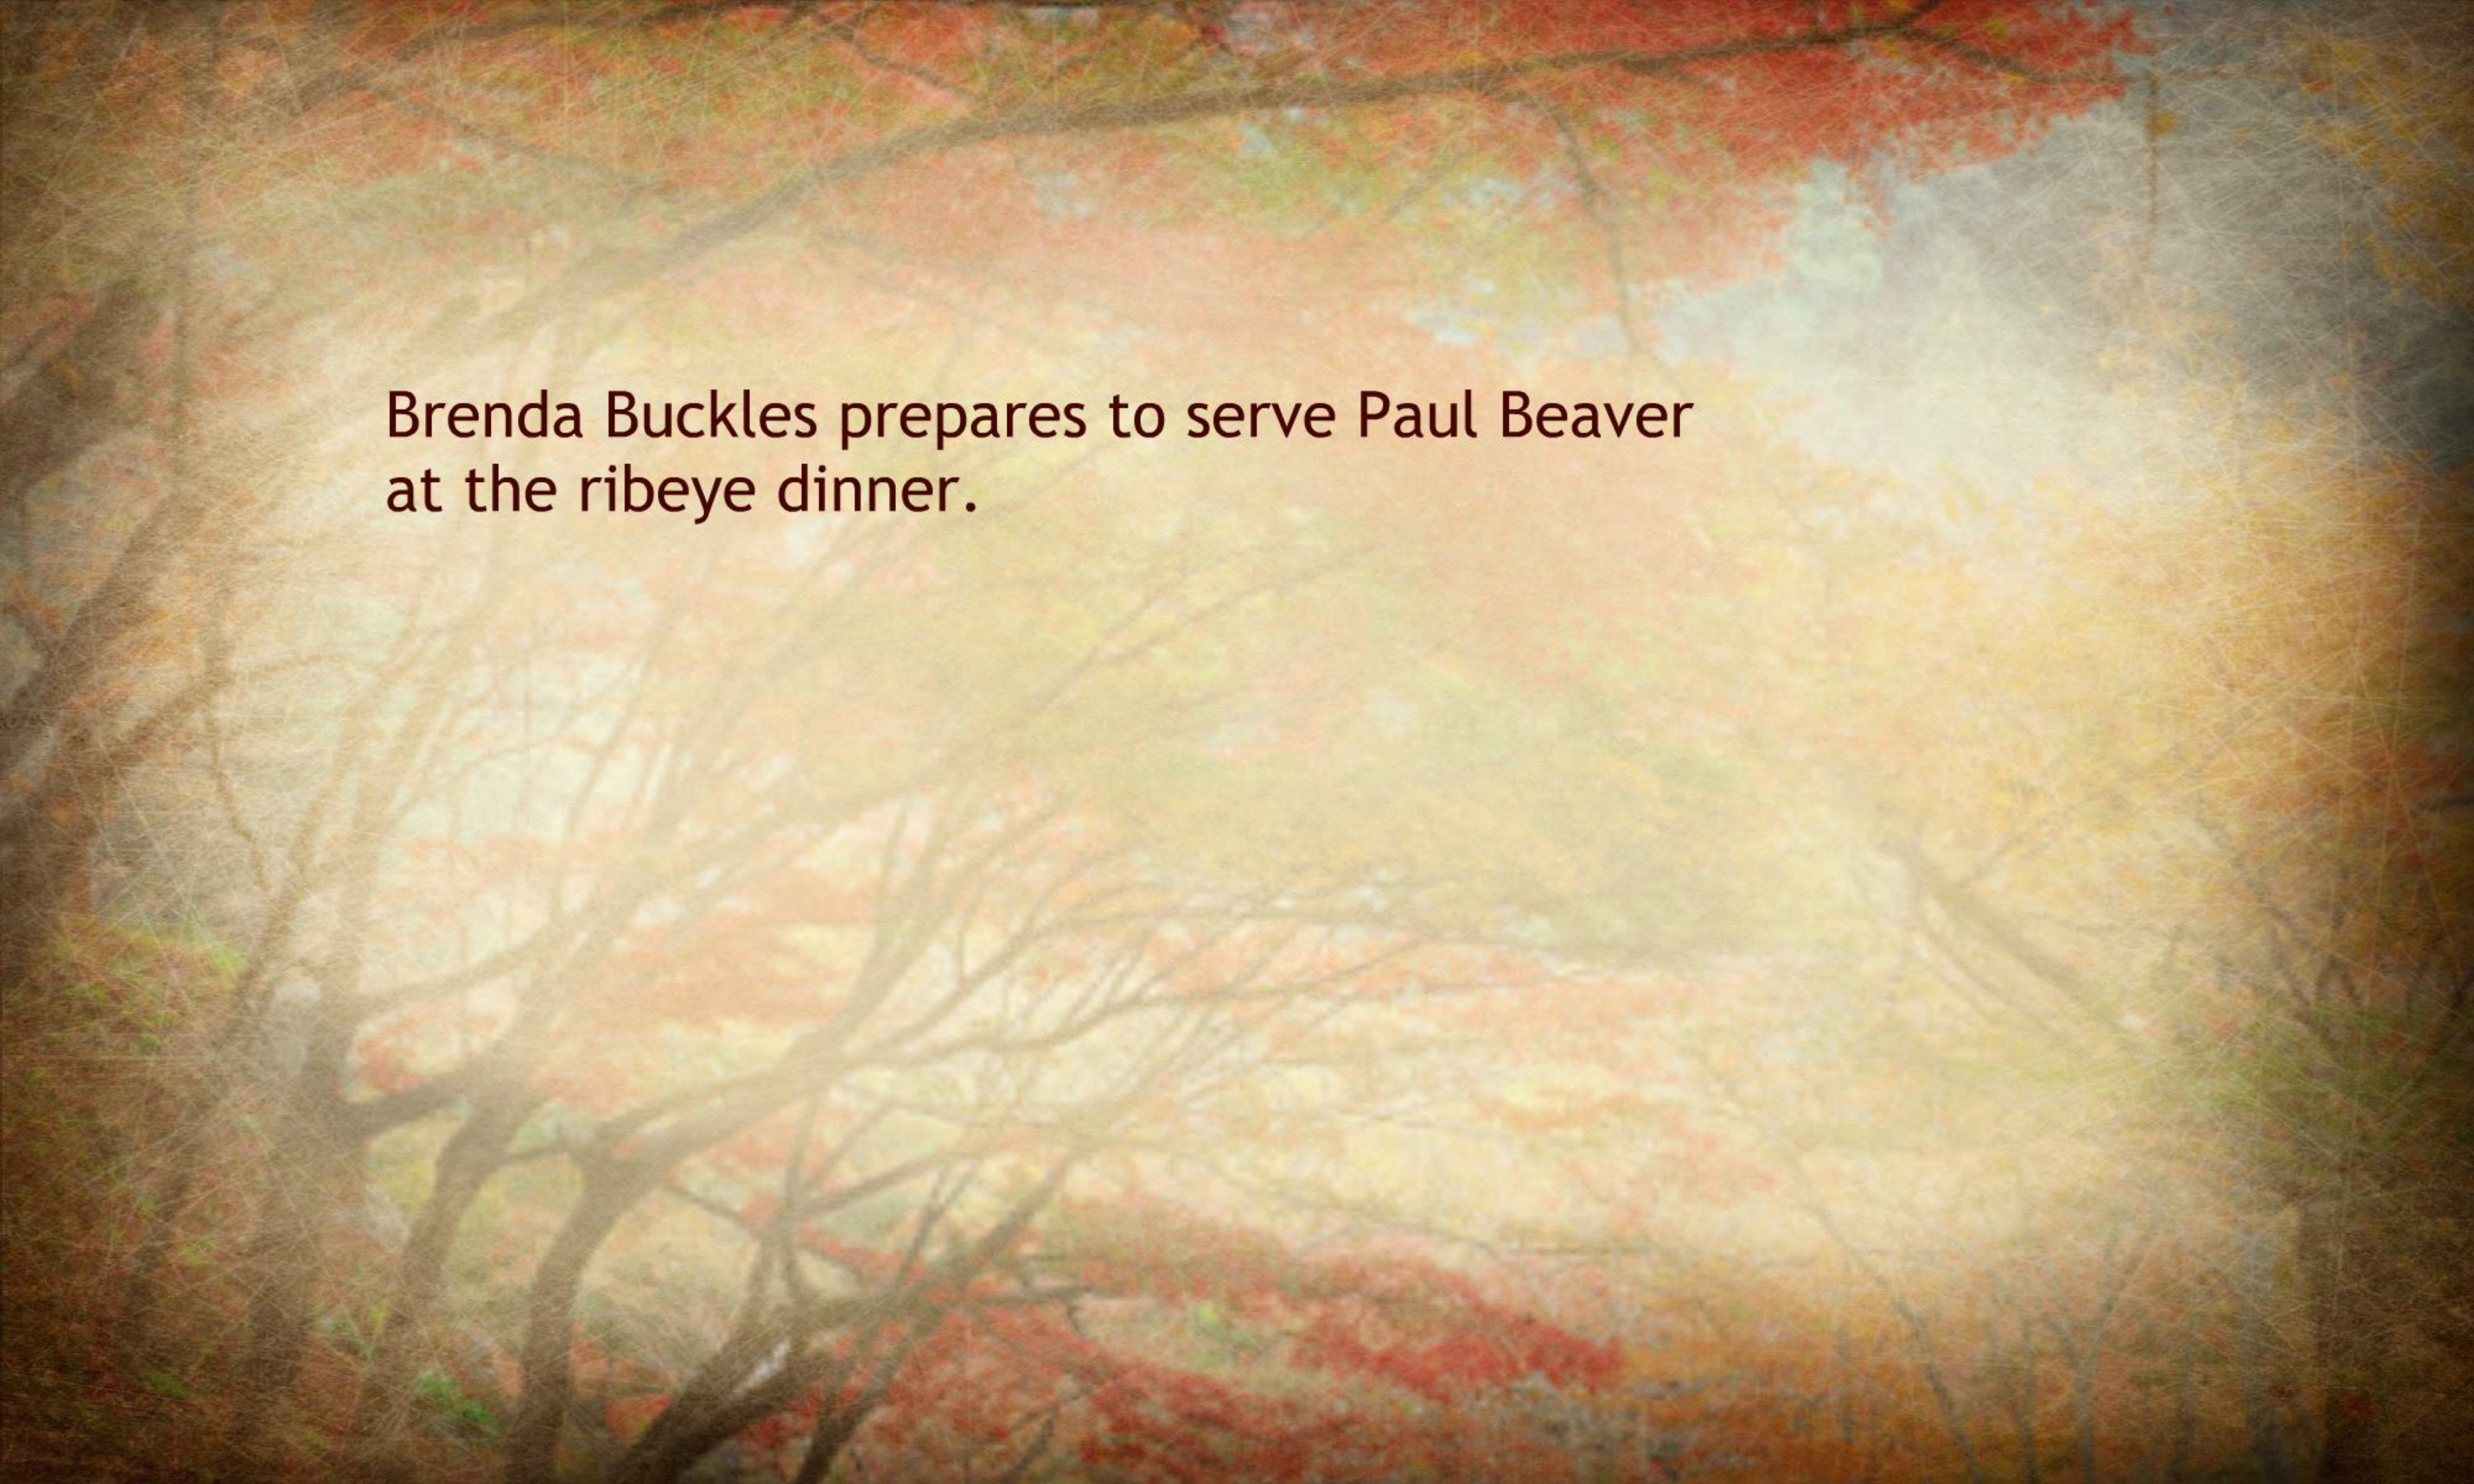

Elizabeth Seibert does a little patriotic face painting on this September 11th evening of the Mount Pulaski Fall Festival.

A crowd enjoys the ribeye sandwich dinner brought to the folks by the American Legion.

Brenda Buckles prepares to serve Paul Beaver at the ribeye dinner.

Two local characters, Darrell Knauer and George Beckers, enjoying telling stories outside the museum.

One on the way up and one on the way down...

A painting of a landscape with a path and trees. The path is a light, sandy color, winding through a wooded area. The trees have sparse, reddish-brown leaves, suggesting autumn. The overall style is soft and painterly, with visible brushstrokes and a muted color palette. The text is overlaid on the left side of the painting.

Nolan Deibert needs a little encouragement from family on the ground.

Kids enjoyed the inflatables Friday evening.
