

Goodbye December

Mitch Douglas

As we come the end of another year, we also say goodbye to the month of December. This year December held some interesting weather events that left us scratching our heads. Was it winter, was it spring, was it fall? We had snow events, very warm days, very cold days, windy days and foggy days.

LDN photographer Mitch Douglas was out and about on a couple of these days and caught shots of what the downtown area looked like as the snow fell and also as the fog encased the area and tried hard to block out the sun.
